

Federation of Trades Puts Approval Stamp On $8,885,000 Bonds

Leading Labor Men Stress Great Need of Funds in Order to Care for Urgent Improvements.

COMMITTEE OF EIGHT HOLDS MEETING TODAY

Chamber Directors Invite Prominent City Officials to Address Them on Subject Monday.

The Atlanta Federation of Trades, representing 40,000 organized labor people, last night adopted a motion endorsing the proposed issue of $8,885,000 in bonds for civic improvements and authorized its president, W. C. Caraway, to attend the meeting of a committee of eight heads of civic bodies that is to be held today for the purpose of mapping out a campaign for the big bond issue.

The action of the federation follows the call for a bond issue meeting for next Monday, when city officials will address the chamber of commerce directors.

The endorsement by the congregation of the Baptist tabernacle Sunday night, the endorsement of the board of education, and other civic bodies.

The local estate board, at a meeting at 1 o'clock Thursday will discuss the matter and a special meeting of the bond committee of eight, organized by the board of education will be held at three o'clock.

Meeting for Today.

President Caraway will meet with Mayor Key, President W. W. Gaines of the Atlanta Board of Education; Mrs. Irving Thomas, president of the Atlanta Woman's club; Mrs. John Spaulding, president of the Parent-Teacher council; President Lee Ashcraft, of the chamber of commerce; W. E. Dunn, president of the water board; Chairman C. E. Buchanan, of the sewer committee, and J. H. Colson, of the council committee on bridges.

The action of the federation was taken despite opposition after President Caraway, Andy McElroy, J. M. Miller, George F. Haney, William Van Houton and others had given many reasons for the issuance of a large bond issue, stating the present condition of sewers, schools, waterworks and the great need for the viaduct over the railroad tracks at Spring street.

The speakers were forceful and eloquent in upholding their side of the question, making it plain that the best method of raising money now for Atlanta's needs is by an issue of bonds that would place sufficient money within the hands of the city government to make the improvements that are vitally demanded at the present time.

Chairman Goad Issue.

When a communication asking for an appointment of the president of the federation to attend the meeting of the above committee of eight had been read by Reading Clerk J. M. Miller, discussion was precipitated, predicated upon the major plan of an emergency tax, as compared with the big bond issue, but after all had been said, and the question put to the house, it was seen that a large majority of those present were in favor of the latter course of raising Atlanta's emergency fund.

President W. C. Caraway, in discussing the bond issue, drew attention to the present deplorable state of the Atlanta schools; declared that the waterworks are in poor repair and working full time; pointed out the need for sewers and said that a viaduct over the railroad tracks at Spring street, which would relieve the cross-town arteries of much of the present burden, would be a highly desirable improvement. He was supported by Andy McElroy, J. M. Miller, George F. Haney and others, who indulged their earnest support to the issue of bonds as an immediate need for Atlanta.

Mission of Geddes.

The mission of Sir Auckland Geddes, the British ambassador, to confer with officials in London, it has been said here, has prominently as one object discussion of American public opinion on the subject of relations with Japan in connection with the proposed renewal of the Anglo-Japanese alliance which expires by limitation in July, and any influence in shaping the British policy by colonies participating in the imperial conference in the spring.

Immediate progress is expected to be made by Secretary Colby in taking up the question of amending existing commercial treaties with Japan or the drafting of a new American-Japanese treaty as a result of the conversations that have just been concluded concerning the rights of Japanese nationals in this country by Roland S. Morris, United States ambassador to Japan, and Baron Shidehara, Japanese ambassador to this country.

Favored an Emergency Tax.

Opposition to the endorsement of the bond issue was led by Carl Karston, secretary of the federation, who inclined to the special tax levy as the best means of raising the money. He opposed the bond issue upon the grounds that it would impose upon coming generations a burden which they had no part in the making, but which they would have to carry.

Karston was supported by William Pollard, Delegate Black, of the carpenters, and others who fought for the emergency tax. The meeting was filled with interest because of the discussion and when the vote on the question came it was seen that President Caraway, who had left the chair to lead the right for the measure on the floor, had triumphed by a vote of 17 to 7.

Chamber Invites Speakers.

In order that the body may be acquainted with the full disposition to be made of the monies from the proposed $8,885,000 bond issue by the city of Atlanta, the Atlanta Chamber of Commerce has invited Mayor Key, City Attorney James L. Mayson, Superintendent W. F. Dykes and other city officials to meet with

BANK OF SUWANEE DARINGLY LOOTED BY AUTO BANDITS

Three Young Men, Unmasked, Entered Building Quietly and Asked for Blank Note.

CASE OF "HANDS UP," AS CUSTOMER LEFT

Bound Cashier Dowis and Looted Till, But Mistake in Signals Saved Vault Officers on Trail.

JAPS PROMISE PROBE OF LANGDON SHOOTING

Admiral Gleaves Reports

Lieutenant Was Slain

Unjustifiably by Sentry.

Conciliatory Reply to

U. S. Note.

Washington, January 26.—(Special)—What is characterized as the most daring robbery ever undertaken in this section occurred this afternoon at 4 o'clock, immediately before the closing hour, when three men entered the Bank of Suwanee, captured the cashier, F. F. Dowis, tied him to a chair and then made off with $2,000 in bills and perhaps other valuables, all of which was obtained from the cashier's drawer.

The men made no attempt to enter the bank vault because, it is believed, of a miscarriage of signals arranged with a confederate stationed in a Ford auto some 200 yards from the bank, and who drove through an alleyway adjoining the bank, summoning his associates.

With apparent unconcern, the three men walked out of the front door of the bank, after the robbery, leisurely boarded the car, which drove down the main street of Suwanee, and made good their escape.

The auto was closely curtained, and it is certain that at least four men were in the party.

The car went east from here, in the direction of Buford. Within 20 minutes after the robbery officers were on trail of the men, and because of a heavy snow it is believed they will have no difficulty in following the track of the fleeing auto and ultimately overhaul it. A reward of $500 was immediately offered by the bank for the capture of the men.

Asked for a Note.

Just a few moments before the bank closed three young men, unmasked, entered. There was a customer at the window at the time, and one of the men asked for a blank note. This was handed him and the three then retired to a convenient desk, where they pretended to fill in the note asked for.

When the customer at the window had finished his business with Cashier Dowis he turned and left the bank, but had hardly gotten to the

Continued on Page 2, Column 2.

Steps Are Taken To Give Atlanta Market Building

Committee Is Appointed to Consider Sites for City Institution.

At an enthusiastic joint meeting of the municipal research committee of city council, officers and directors of the Civitan club and representatives of the Atlanta Woman's club, held Wednesday afternoon, in the city hall, an important step toward the establishment of a municipal market for Atlanta was taken, when Councilman J. R. Nutting, chairman of the council committee, appointed a committee of three to immediately take up the consideration of proposed location and submit data to city council.

In this connection it was pointed out that only a few weeks remain before the present administration quits office, and it was also indicated in some quarters that the progress to be made by the international communications congress upon its reconvening, which is promised for an early date, and the Far Eastern policy to be adopted by Great Britain in the next few months must inevitably be taken into account before the United States can determine its program in the Pacific along broad lines in the light of post-war conditions.

Mission of Geddes.

The mission of Sir Auckland Geddes, the British ambassador, to confer with officials in London, it has been said here, has prominently as one object discussion of American public opinion on the subject of relations with Japan in connection with the proposed renewal of the Anglo-Japanese alliance which expires by limitation in July, and any influence in shaping the British policy by colonies participating in the imperial conference in the spring.

Immediate progress is expected to be made by Secretary Colby in taking up the question of amending existing commercial treaties with Japan or the drafting of a new American-Japanese treaty as a result of the conversations that have just been concluded concerning the rights of Japanese nationals in this country by Roland S. Morris, United States ambassador to Japan, and Baron Shidehara, Japanese ambassador to this country.

Favored an Emergency Tax.

Opposition to the endorsement of the bond issue was led by Carl Karston, secretary of the federation, who inclined to the special tax levy as the best means of raising the money. He opposed the bond issue upon the grounds that it would impose upon coming generations a burden which they had no part in the making, but which they would have to carry.

Karston was supported by William Pollard, Delegate Black, of the carpenters, and others who fought for the emergency tax. The meeting was filled with interest because of the discussion and when the vote on the question came it was seen that President Caraway, who had left the chair to lead the right for the measure on the floor, had triumphed by a vote of 17 to 7.

Chamber Invites Speakers.

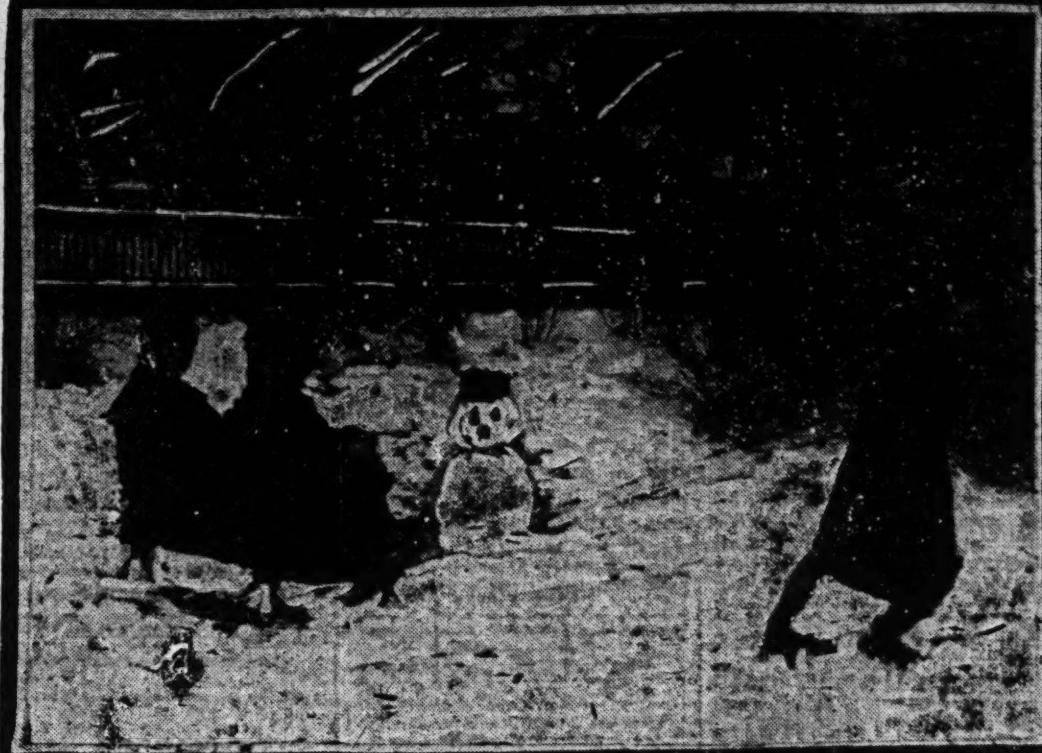

In order that the body may be acquainted with the full disposition to be made of the monies from the proposed $8,885,000 bond issue by the city of Atlanta, the Atlanta Chamber of Commerce has invited Mayor Key, City Attorney James L. Mayson, Superintendent W. F. Dykes and other city officials to meet with

CHEWING TOBACCO COMPRISES LOOT OF AUTO BANDITS

Chicago, January 26.—Kidnapping the driver and his helper, bandits today escaped on a motor truck containing $5,000 worth of chewing tobacco.

Continued on Page 4, Column 4.

Snow Pays Atlanta Unexpected Visit And Youngsters Enjoy Day to Utmost

WALSH PROBERS CLEAR SCHWAB OF GRAFT CHARGE

Charges Not Proven and Not True, Is Statement of the Committee—Great Injustice Alleged.

Washington, January 26.—With the approval of Chairman Walsh members of the house committee investigating the shipping board, declared in a statement today that they "were satisfied" after hearing all the evidence and examining the documents that the charge that Charles M. Schwab received money from the government for his personal expenses while serving as wartime director of the emergency fleet corporation, "was not proven and further that it was not true."

The statement was issued by Representative Steele, democrat, Pennsylvania, after discussion with the other members who heard the testimony in New York and Washington relating to the $260,000 voucher.

Its issuance in advance of the full report of the committee on the results of its investigation was unusual, but members explained that it had been decided to break away from long-established rules on the ground of fairness to one unjustly accused.

When the final report on the whole inquiry is submitted to Congress it is anticipated that the committee would restate in more formal form the belief that the charge was without justification.

Mr. Steele's statement was issued after it had been read by Chairman Walsh, its chairman, who announced that he had no objection whatever to its publication. It follows:

"When asked if he cared to make any statement relative to the hearing held by the select committee on shipping board expenditures on the charge that Mr. Charles M. Schwab had received payment for expenses which were charged against the shipping board emergency fleet corporation to ship construction cost, Mr. Steele replied that the members of the committee who heard all the testimony and saw the documents were satisfied that the charge was not proven, and further, that it was not true."

"Mr. Steele further stated this statement was made with the knowledge and consent of the members of the committee."

The committee will continue its general hearings here next week, but it was said the voucher incident, certainly so far as it related to Mr. Schwab had been closed.

VERY GRATEFUL, SCHWAB DECLARIES.

New York, January 26.—"I am, indeed, grateful," Charles M. Schwab, steel magnate, told the Associated Press when he learned that his name was mentioned in a statement in Washington clearing him of charges of receiving payment from the government for expenses while serving as director of the emergency fleet corporation.

"It is the best news I have heard," he said. "I appreciate beyond words the action of the Walsh committee in so promptly exonerating me from the charge which has been so widely circulated," Mr. Schwab added. "I am deeply grateful to the committee for the straightforward and honest way in which it took up the investigation of the charge it was made."

"I cannot forbear adding an expression of my appreciation of the spontaneous expressions of confidence and sympathy of Congressmen Foster at the close of my testimony yesterday."

Bandits Make $835,000
Haul in Non-Negotiable
Checks in Kansas City

Kansas City, Mo., January 26.—Three automobile bandits held up passengers of the Drovers' National bank and escaped with $835,000 in non-negotiable checks. The passengers were being driven in a taxicab to the clearing house downtown.

Officials of the bank said the only loss would be a few hours extra bookkeeping.

Snowballing and Sleigh-Riding Feature Wednesday—Fair Today, Says the Local Forecaster.

ALLEGED CON MEN SENT TO ATLANTA

Habeas Corpus Writs De nied by Judge in Memphis and Trip to Georgia Begins.

Telegraphic advices were received yesterday by Solicitor General John A. Boykin that the three Memphis prisoners believed to have been implicated in Atlanta's confidence ring had lost their long fight to prevent extradition to Georgia, and are now on their way to Atlanta in charge of Special Agent Dennis Miner. The telegram was signed by the chief of police of Memphis.

These men, Walter Chambers, William Fletcher and George Williams, were arrested in a gambling raid on a Memphis hotel. With them were three others, who are now awaiting trial in the Fulton county court.

The committee will continue its general hearings here next week, but it was said the voucher incident, certainly so far as it related to Mr. Schwab had been closed.

ATLANTA HOSPITABLE.

That Atlanta is distinctly hospitable, even to the extent of providing a touch of home-like weather for guests, was evidenced when the snow came just in time for the arrival of distinguished visitors—Governor Coolidge and party.

"You have certainly made me feel at home—you have given me a touch of New England weather," said the vice president-elect at a banquet which he attended Wednesday night at the Georgian Terrace.

The snowball season started with a rush at Five Points yesterday just after noon, but will not continue Thursday, according to announcement Wednesday night by Forecaster C. F. von Herrmann.

Sleets mingled itself with the snow which began to fall here Wednesday morning, but soon withdrew in favor of intermittent flurries of snow, which, owing to its uncertainty and the dampness of the ground on which it fell, was not sufficient to be dubbed a "blanket." Just a counterpane, maybe, or perhaps two thin sheets.

BEGINS IN ALABAMA.

Southern Alabama is where the disturbance arose that caused the surprising and totally little manifestation of the elements' versatility. The granting of the habeas corpus writs. They were dismissed by the Memphis circuit court.

Cloudy and cold weather, with the mercury at 34° F., will continue throughout the day at a few little notches beneath the freezing point.

Although the local forecaster says it will be fair in Atlanta Thursday, the forecast from Washington, which covers all Georgia, reads: "Slightly cloudy and continued cold Thursday; fair with rising temperature Friday."

Not quite half an inch of snow fell Wednesday, according to figures given out in Atlanta.

But that half inch was quite sufficient to provide joy to hundreds of Atlanta kiddies, who scraped up enough of the white flakes to make possible a day in school yards about the city, and to mould snowballs with which miniature battles were staged wherever the children gathered for their play.

ONLY SMALL SNOW MEN.

True, the snow men lacked the stature and the robust plumpness of the ones in the north.

But in 1920 all the snow men for him and for her were well-made.

He left his shack

to collect rents. Presently, he said he occupied a less pretentious hut.

He had $100 in his pocket.

</div

Do you know why it's toasted?

To seal in the delicious Burley tobacco flavor.

LUCKY STRIKE CIGARETTE

Le American Hawley

OUCH! MY BACK! RUB LUMBAGO PAIN AWAY

Rub Backache away with small trial bottle of old "St. Jacobs Oil."

When your back is sore and lame or lumbago, get a salve of "St. Jacobs Oil." Get a small trial bottle of old, honest "St. Jacobs Oil" at any drug store, pour a little in your hand and rub it right on your aching back, and by the time you count to ten, the soreness and lameness is gone.

Don't stay crippled! This sooth-in-penetrating oil needs to be used only once. It takes the pain right out and ends the misery. It is safe, non-greasy, non-oily, harmless and doesn't burn the skin.

Nothing else stops lumbago, sciatica, backache or rheumatism so promptly. It never disappoints!

—(adv.)

This is what healed my skin trouble
Resinol

"Now I don't have to avoid people because of embarrassing skin trouble, or lie awake hours at night tormented by intense itching. Resinol Ointment did it! After the first application of this soothing ointment, I felt such blessed relief. In a short time the inflammation was reduced and the itchiness stopped. Now my lesions are rapidly gone. I used Resinol Soap as directed with it and have found Resinol Shaving Stick to be the best on the market for a clean, easy shave." Resinol trio at all druggists.

Juniper Tar COMPOUND

Best for Coughs, Colds, Sore Throat

25c. a Bottle
Pills—Per Dozen One Cent

DON'T EXPERIMENT This old reliable family remedy has relieved thousands—it will relieve you—Try it Today.

93 North Pryor Street is where you will find us now and we will be glad to see you.

The Tripod Paint Co.

ANNOUNCEMENT!

I have bought the entire Jake Newman stock of Clothing, Hats and Furnishings at 95 Peachtree St.

Watch newspapers for the opening day of another big Pierce "2 for 1" sale.

ALLEN M. PIERCE
17 MARIETTA ST.

THOMPSON CONFESSES TO MURDER, IS CLAIM

Feeling Said to Be Running High at Alamo Over Wilcox Killing.

Alamo, Ga., January 26.—County authorities claim to have obtained a complete confession of the shooting of Robert Wilcox, prominent LaGrange City young man, and the disposal of the body from J. C. Thompson tonight when Thompson was confronted with John Buchanan at the county jail here. The confession, county authorities said, places full responsibility for the crime upon Thompson. Feeling is running high.

DRAGGING RIVER FOR WILCOX'S BODY.

Lumber City, Ga., January 26.—John Buchanan, arrested today in connection with the killing of Robert Wilcox, was taken to the Cheney's Landing on the Ocmulgee river this evening, the point where, according to the body of Wilcox was thrown into the stream.

Buchanan claims that J. C. Thompson, previously arrested and held in jail, had been implicated Buchanan first in the case, which is said to have killed Wilcox.

The river was being dragged tonight for Wilcox's body.

Thompson, according to Wheeler county officers, that he and Buchanan ran across Wilcox in the swimming near Cheney's Ferry, and that he shot the young man, then turned upon Buchanan to help throw the body into the stream.

Calvin Coolidge, the next vice president, and his party, stopped at the Terminal Station early Wednesday night on their arrival here for the Southern Tiffit congress meeting. The distinguished guest will make an address at the Baptist Tabernacle tonight. Front row, reading from left to right, the party is as follows: Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Stearns, of Boston; Governor and Mrs. Calvin Coolidge, Major General J. F. Morrison, a member of the Atlanta reception committee, and on the extreme right, Captain J. J. Grady, of Boston. In the back rows are members of the reception committee.

Continued From First Page.

ALLIES UNDECIDED ON REPARATIONS

CLASH IN SENATE ON TARIFF BILL

Continued From First Page.

actual discussion of the bill's terms concluded, the public leaders took a real point by forcing a recess of the senate tonight until tomorrow instead of adjournment, the move being to keep the Senate before the Senate for consideration immediately tomorrow to the exclusion of other usual routine business.

The move to hold the tariff bill over until the Senate recessed was supported by the Senate Republicans, who wanted to vote on the bill before the session closed.

Both the Senate Republicans and the French political leaders who wanted to see something done immediately, will have passed into history.

The conference will listen again Thursday to Paul Doumer, and the British and Italian views will be aired later in the day. Doumer's ideas on what, how, and when Germany should pay, and Marshal Foch's report on the disarmament situation will be studied Wednesday in preparation for Thursday's discussion.

Senator Underwood protested that the United States and other democrats protested against the effort to fix a vote next Tuesday, considering that debate had been begun only yesterday. Senator Underwood was "a clear indication that the majority had raised the white flag," Senator Underwood said, "and we would agree to a vote after a week or ten days."

Senators Underwood and other democrats protested against the effort to fix a vote next Tuesday, considering that debate had been begun only yesterday. Senator Underwood was "a clear indication that the majority had raised the white flag," Senator Underwood said, "and we would agree to a vote after a week or ten days."

Senators Underwood and other democrats protested against the effort to fix a vote next Tuesday, considering that debate had been begun only yesterday. Senator Underwood was "a clear indication that the majority had raised the white flag," Senator Underwood said, "and we would agree to a vote after a week or ten days."

Senators Underwood and other democrats protested against the effort to fix a vote next Tuesday, considering that debate had been begun only yesterday. Senator Underwood was "a clear indication that the majority had raised the white flag," Senator Underwood said, "and we would agree to a vote after a week or ten days."

Senators Underwood and other democrats protested against the effort to fix a vote next Tuesday, considering that debate had been begun only yesterday. Senator Underwood was "a clear indication that the majority had raised the white flag," Senator Underwood said, "and we would agree to a vote after a week or ten days."

Senators Underwood and other democrats protested against the effort to fix a vote next Tuesday, considering that debate had been begun only yesterday. Senator Underwood was "a clear indication that the majority had raised the white flag," Senator Underwood said, "and we would agree to a vote after a week or ten days."

Senators Underwood and other democrats protested against the effort to fix a vote next Tuesday, considering that debate had been begun only yesterday. Senator Underwood was "a clear indication that the majority had raised the white flag," Senator Underwood said, "and we would agree to a vote after a week or ten days."

Senators Underwood and other democrats protested against the effort to fix a vote next Tuesday, considering that debate had been begun only yesterday. Senator Underwood was "a clear indication that the majority had raised the white flag," Senator Underwood said, "and we would agree to a vote after a week or ten days."

Senators Underwood and other democrats protested against the effort to fix a vote next Tuesday, considering that debate had been begun only yesterday. Senator Underwood was "a clear indication that the majority had raised the white flag," Senator Underwood said, "and we would agree to a vote after a week or ten days."

Senators Underwood and other democrats protested against the effort to fix a vote next Tuesday, considering that debate had been begun only yesterday. Senator Underwood was "a clear indication that the majority had raised the white flag," Senator Underwood said, "and we would agree to a vote after a week or ten days."

Senators Underwood and other democrats protested against the effort to fix a vote next Tuesday, considering that debate had been begun only yesterday. Senator Underwood was "a clear indication that the majority had raised the white flag," Senator Underwood said, "and we would agree to a vote after a week or ten days."

Senators Underwood and other democrats protested against the effort to fix a vote next Tuesday, considering that debate had been begun only yesterday. Senator Underwood was "a clear indication that the majority had raised the white flag," Senator Underwood said, "and we would agree to a vote after a week or ten days."

Senators Underwood and other democrats protested against the effort to fix a vote next Tuesday, considering that debate had been begun only yesterday. Senator Underwood was "a clear indication that the majority had raised the white flag," Senator Underwood said, "and we would agree to a vote after a week or ten days."

Senators Underwood and other democrats protested against the effort to fix a vote next Tuesday, considering that debate had been begun only yesterday. Senator Underwood was "a clear indication that the majority had raised the white flag," Senator Underwood said, "and we would agree to a vote after a week or ten days."

Senators Underwood and other democrats protested against the effort to fix a vote next Tuesday, considering that debate had been begun only yesterday. Senator Underwood was "a clear indication that the majority had raised the white flag," Senator Underwood said, "and we would agree to a vote after a week or ten days."

Senators Underwood and other democrats protested against the effort to fix a vote next Tuesday, considering that debate had been begun only yesterday. Senator Underwood was "a clear indication that the majority had raised the white flag," Senator Underwood said, "and we would agree to a vote after a week or ten days."

Senators Underwood and other democrats protested against the effort to fix a vote next Tuesday, considering that debate had been begun only yesterday. Senator Underwood was "a clear indication that the majority had raised the white flag," Senator Underwood said, "and we would agree to a vote after a week or ten days."

Senators Underwood and other democrats protested against the effort to fix a vote next Tuesday, considering that debate had been begun only yesterday. Senator Underwood was "a clear indication that the majority had raised the white flag," Senator Underwood said, "and we would agree to a vote after a week or ten days."

Senators Underwood and other democrats protested against the effort to fix a vote next Tuesday, considering that debate had been begun only yesterday. Senator Underwood was "a clear indication that the majority had raised the white flag," Senator Underwood said, "and we would agree to a vote after a week or ten days."

Senators Underwood and other democrats protested against the effort to fix a vote next Tuesday, considering that debate had been begun only yesterday. Senator Underwood was "a clear indication that the majority had raised the white flag," Senator Underwood said, "and we would agree to a vote after a week or ten days."

Senators Underwood and other democrats protested against the effort to fix a vote next Tuesday, considering that debate had been begun only yesterday. Senator Underwood was "a clear indication that the majority had raised the white flag," Senator Underwood said, "and we would agree to a vote after a week or ten days."

Senators Underwood and other democrats protested against the effort to fix a vote next Tuesday, considering that debate had been begun only yesterday. Senator Underwood was "a clear indication that the majority had raised the white flag," Senator Underwood said, "and we would agree to a vote after a week or ten days."

Senators Underwood and other democrats protested against the effort to fix a vote next Tuesday, considering that debate had been begun only yesterday. Senator Underwood was "a clear indication that the majority had raised the white flag," Senator Underwood said, "and we would agree to a vote after a week or ten days."

Senators Underwood and other democrats protested against the effort to fix a vote next Tuesday, considering that debate had been begun only yesterday. Senator Underwood was "a clear indication that the majority had raised the white flag," Senator Underwood said, "and we would agree to a vote after a week or ten days."

Senators Underwood and other democrats protested against the effort to fix a vote next Tuesday, considering that debate had been begun only yesterday. Senator Underwood was "a clear indication that the majority had raised the white flag," Senator Underwood said, "and we would agree to a vote after a week or ten days."

Senators Underwood and other democrats protested against the effort to fix a vote next Tuesday, considering that debate had been begun only yesterday. Senator Underwood was "a clear indication that the majority had raised the white flag," Senator Underwood said, "and we would agree to a vote after a week or ten days."

Senators Underwood and other democrats protested against the effort to fix a vote next Tuesday, considering that debate had been begun only yesterday. Senator Underwood was "a clear indication that the majority had raised the white flag," Senator Underwood said, "and we would agree to a vote after a week or ten days."

Senators Underwood and other democrats protested against the effort to fix a vote next Tuesday, considering that debate had been begun only yesterday. Senator Underwood was "a clear indication that the majority had raised the white flag," Senator Underwood said, "and we would agree to a vote after a week or ten days."

Senators Underwood and other democrats protested against the effort to fix a vote next Tuesday, considering that debate had been begun only yesterday. Senator Underwood was "a clear indication that the majority had raised the white flag," Senator Underwood said, "and we would agree to a vote after a week or ten days."

Senators Underwood and other democrats protested against the effort to fix a vote next Tuesday, considering that debate had been begun only yesterday. Senator Underwood was "a clear indication that the majority had raised the white flag," Senator Underwood said, "and we would agree to a vote after a week or ten days."

Senators Underwood and other democrats protested against the effort to fix a vote next Tuesday, considering that debate had been begun only yesterday. Senator Underwood was "a clear indication that the majority had raised the white flag," Senator Underwood said, "and we would agree to a vote after a week or ten days."

Senators Underwood and other democrats protested against the effort to fix a vote next Tuesday, considering that debate had been begun only yesterday. Senator Underwood was "a clear indication that the majority had raised the white flag," Senator Underwood said, "and we would agree to a vote after a week or ten days."

Senators Underwood and other democrats protested against the effort to fix a vote next Tuesday, considering that debate had been begun only yesterday. Senator Underwood was "a clear indication that the majority had raised the white flag," Senator Underwood said, "and we would agree to a vote after a week or ten days."

Senators Underwood and other democrats protested against the effort to fix a vote next Tuesday, considering that debate had been begun only yesterday. Senator Underwood was "a clear indication that the majority had raised the white flag," Senator Underwood said, "and we would agree to a vote after a week or ten days."

Senators Underwood and other democrats protested against the effort to fix a vote next Tuesday, considering that debate had been begun only yesterday. Senator Underwood was "a clear indication that the majority had raised the white flag," Senator Underwood said, "and we would agree to a vote after a week or ten days."

Senators Underwood and other democrats protested against the effort to fix a vote next Tuesday, considering that debate had been begun only yesterday. Senator Underwood was "a clear indication that the majority had raised the white flag," Senator Underwood said, "and we would agree to a vote after a week or ten days."

Senators Underwood and other democrats protested against the effort to fix a vote next Tuesday, considering that debate had been begun only yesterday. Senator Underwood was "a clear indication that the majority had raised the white flag," Senator Underwood said, "and we would agree to a vote after a week or ten days."

Senators Underwood and other democrats protested against the effort to fix a vote next Tuesday, considering that debate had been begun only yesterday. Senator Underwood was "a clear indication that the majority had raised the white flag," Senator Underwood said, "and we would agree to a vote after a week or ten days."

Senators Underwood and other democrats protested against the effort to fix a vote next Tuesday, considering that debate had been begun only yesterday. Senator Underwood was "a clear indication that the majority had raised the white flag," Senator Underwood said, "and we would agree to a vote after a week or ten days."

Senators Underwood and other democrats protested against the effort to fix a vote next Tuesday, considering that debate had been begun only yesterday. Senator Underwood was "a clear indication that the majority had raised the white flag," Senator Underwood said, "and we would agree to a vote after a week or ten days."

Senators Underwood and other democrats protested against the effort to fix a vote next Tuesday, considering that debate had been begun only yesterday. Senator Underwood was "a clear indication that the majority had raised the white flag," Senator Underwood said, "and we would agree to a vote after a week or ten days."

Senators Underwood and other democrats protested against the effort to fix a vote next Tuesday, considering that debate had been begun only yesterday. Senator Underwood was "a clear indication that the majority had raised the white flag," Senator Underwood said, "and we would agree to a vote after a week or ten days."

Senators Underwood and other democrats protested against the effort to fix a vote next Tuesday, considering that debate had been begun only yesterday. Senator Underwood was "a clear indication that the majority had raised the white flag," Senator Underwood said, "and we would agree to a vote after a week or ten days."

Senators Underwood and other democrats protested against the effort to fix a vote next Tuesday, considering that debate had been begun only yesterday. Senator Underwood was "a clear indication that the majority had raised the white flag," Senator Underwood said, "and we would agree to a vote after a week or ten days."

Senators Underwood and other democrats protested against the effort to fix a vote next Tuesday, considering that debate had been begun only yesterday. Senator Underwood was "a clear indication that the majority had raised the white flag," Senator Underwood said, "and we would agree to a vote after a week or ten days."

Senators Underwood and other democrats protested against the effort to fix a vote next Tuesday, considering that debate had been begun only yesterday. Senator Underwood was "a clear indication that the majority had raised the white flag," Senator Underwood said, "and we would agree to a vote after a week or ten days."

Senators Underwood and other democrats protested against the effort to fix a vote next Tuesday, considering that debate had been begun only yesterday. Senator Underwood was "a clear indication that the majority had raised the white flag," Senator Underwood said, "and we would agree to a vote after a week or ten days."

Senators Underwood and other democrats protested against the effort to fix a vote next Tuesday, considering that debate had been begun only yesterday. Senator Underwood was "a clear indication that the majority had raised the white flag," Senator Underwood said, "and we would agree to a vote after a week or ten days."

Senators Underwood and other democrats protested against the effort to fix a vote next Tuesday, considering that debate had been begun only yesterday. Senator Underwood was "a clear indication that the majority had raised the white flag," Senator Underwood said, "and we would agree to a vote after a week or ten days."

Senators Underwood and other democrats protested against the effort to fix a vote next Tuesday, considering that debate had been begun only yesterday. Senator Underwood was "a clear indication that the majority had raised the white flag," Senator Underwood said, "and we would agree to a vote after a week or ten days."

Senators Underwood and other democrats protested against the effort to fix a vote next Tuesday, considering that debate had been begun only yesterday. Senator Underwood was "a clear indication that the majority had raised the white flag," Senator Underwood said, "and we would agree to a vote after a week or ten days."

Senators Underwood and other democrats protested against the effort to fix a vote next Tuesday, considering that debate had been begun only yesterday. Senator Underwood was "a clear indication that the majority had raised the white flag," Senator Underwood said, "and we would agree to a vote after a week or ten days."

Senators Underwood and other democrats protested against the effort to fix a vote next Tuesday, considering that debate had been begun only yesterday. Senator Underwood was "a clear indication that the majority had raised the white flag," Senator Underwood said, "and we would agree to a vote after a week or ten days."

WHITE PROVISION CO. DECLARES DIVIDEND

High Cotton Price Has Hurt Hog-Raising in Georgia, Report Shows.

A ten per cent dividend was declared on the stock of the White Provision company at a meeting held Wednesday, when reports from all departments had been received showing a highly profitable year. The following officers were named by the directors for the coming twelve months:

W. H. White, Jr., president; W. L. Mewborn, vice-president; E. S. Pavy, vice-president; R. L. Holbrook, secretary, and F. C. Wilkerson, treasurer.

The meeting was held in the company office on Howell Mill road, where fine displays of the product of the company were on exhibit.

The stockholders elected the following directors: J. H. Allison, Chattanooga, Tenn.; A. N. Brown, McDonough; B. F. Bell, Atlanta; F. C. Wilkerson, Atlanta; E. S. Pavy, Atlanta; W. L. Mewborn, Atlanta, and W. H. White, Jr., Atlanta.

Following the adjournment of the meeting, the stockholders gathered in the dining room for lunch.

Report by White.

A report to the stockholders by President W. H. White, Jr., in which he covered the business of the company for the past year, was a feature of the meeting. This report, in part, follows:

"This has proven the test year for men and industry. Men have been called upon to show their full strength and loyalty to home and enterprise just as much through this period of readjustment as when our country was at war, and our success has depended entirely upon just how we measured up to our responsibility."

We have swallowed cheerfully every dose of criticism which has been heaped upon us in the form of lower prices, believing that the prices of a year ago were unsafe, and that business today is in much safer condition at prices and values of the present than at the inflated prices of a year ago.

Our arts are now within the reach of every person and will naturally find a better friend in the consumer, which in turn will reflect a better demand for the product of the packer.

Business Done in Georgia.

"We have prepared a complete report of all business done by our company for the year 1920," continues the report, "and one of the most interesting features is the increase in the slaughter of live stock with the slaughter of live stock.

This item shows that the slaughter of live stock in number of animals has just been furnished by the announcement of the southwide tour of the Cincinnati Symphony orchestra, which appears in two concerts in Atlanta, Jan. 26.

"We have handled during the year 681 carloads of live stock, weighing 1,776,000 pounds, which we paid in cash, $22,713.97.

"Of the cattle purchased 5,772 were bought up at a cost of $2,000.00, and 2,000 others came from Tennessee, costing $182,540.00.

"The average live weight of the cattle was 722 pounds, and average live cost per hundredweight, $3.40.

Twenty-four head were bought in Georgia at a cost of $272,120.29, and 24,921 head were shipped from Tennessee at a cost of $277,016.05.

"The average live weight of the cattle per hundredweight, $13.65.

You can see what effect high price cotton has had on the production of live stock in Georgia. Two years ago we bought in Georgia 21,237 head, averaging 13.65, and shipped from Tennessee. We paid the Georgia farmers $487,885.15 for the hogs bought from them, and $15,514 for the hogs bought in Tennessee. Whereas, two years ago we just reversed itself this year. The Georgia farmers supplied less than one-third of the hogs we killed for you, and the price was less than one-third of the money.

The high price of cotton induced many of the Georgia farmers to disclose their operations and devote their entire attention to cotton, resulting in a severe setback to hog production in Georgia.

"We have, however, with a splendid warning to the farmers in this state, and have every confidence in renewed activities in the care of their stock, and feel certain that their receipts will pick up again this year and regardless of the price of cotton, believe you will see the Georgia farmers producing hogs for the market in record numbers each year from this time on.

SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA LIKES ATLANTA PLAN

Children's Concerts, First Suggested Here, Now a Regular Feature.

New evidence of Atlanta's leadership of the south in musical lines has just been furnished by the announcement of the southwide tour of the Cincinnati Symphony orchestra, which appears in two concerts in Atlanta, Jan. 26.

"We have handled during the year 681 carloads of live stock, weighing 1,776,000 pounds, which we paid in cash, $22,713.97.

"Of the cattle purchased 5,772 were bought up at a cost of $2,000.00, and 2,000 others came from Tennessee, costing $182,540.00.

"The average live weight of the cattle was 722 pounds, and average live cost per hundredweight, $3.40.

Twenty-four head were bought in Georgia at a cost of $272,120.29, and 24,921 head were shipped from Tennessee at a cost of $277,016.05.

"The average live weight of the cattle per hundredweight, $13.65.

You can see what effect high price cotton has had on the production of live stock in Georgia. Two years ago we bought in Georgia 21,237 head, averaging 13.65, and shipped from Tennessee. We paid the Georgia farmers $487,885.15 for the hogs bought from them, and $15,514 for the hogs bought in Tennessee. Whereas, two years ago we just reversed itself this year. The Georgia farmers supplied less than one-third of the hogs we killed for you, and the price was less than one-third of the money.

The high price of cotton induced many of the Georgia farmers to disclose their operations and devote their entire attention to cotton, resulting in a severe setback to hog production in Georgia.

"We have, however, with a splendid warning to the farmers in this state, and have every confidence in renewed activities in the care of their stock, and feel certain that their receipts will pick up again this year and regardless of the price of cotton, believe you will see the Georgia farmers producing hogs for the market in record numbers each year from this time on.

SAYS PRISONER GAVE WRONG HOME ADDRESS

E. H. Lawler, 48, Greenberry, averred in his written defense to the Constitution, denying the statement that one of the men bound over on charges of theft from Camp Jesup resides at his residence. The prisoner gave his name as A. E. Lawler, of the states, and the writer wishes it stated, for the benefit of those who have ga ned an erroneous impression, that the man referred to does not reside at his home.

Prominent Texans at Tariff Congress

Photo by Price. Among the visitors attending the Southern Tariff association meeting in Atlanta is Colonel Louis Wortham, editor and proprietor of The Fort Worth Star-Telegram, one of the most prominent and successful southern newspapers. Colonel Wortham has been a wonderful force in the development not only of Fort Worth, but of the Lone Star state. He is a brilliant talker as well as a forcible writer. He is accompanied to Atlanta by a strong delegation from Texas, shown in the above group. Reading from left to right: George W. Armstrong, of Fort Worth; Colonel L. J. Wortham, of Fort Worth; Paul Gage of Dallas; Marion Sansom, of Fort Worth; E. S. Shannon, secretary of the chamber of commerce of Fort Worth, and Clarence E. Linz, of Dallas.

Daughter in Jail, Grief Ends Life
Of Aged Mother

When Wilma Leineweber, pretty and youthful, appeared before United States Commissioner Colquitt Carter yesterday in connection with charges of violating the white slave act and bigamy, she not only heard witnesses declare that she had made statutes, but she also heard the terrible accusation that her obdurate behavior in face of the pleadings of her aged mother had forced the poor old woman to her death within a half-hour after her plea had been refused.

And so it was that the Leineweber girl sat defiant in the court and had no smiles save for Lindsay Amaker, the man she had forced to wed her, in order to keep her soul to enrich his pockets, according to officers. E. D. Leineweber, was among those in the courtroom. For a moment he flatly declared that he was not the husband and that she had never seen him before.

Both Amaker and Amaker were bound over to the federal grand jury under $2,000 bond on the white slave charge, while it was declared that the trial would be pressed in by the state courts.

Witnesses had testified as to the life of Amaker with Mrs. Leineweber in Atlanta and how they had left her together and how she had registered together at a number of hotels in various cities and towns of the nation. It was further charged that the girl had once declared to federal agents that while she and Amaker were away on their trip, he forced her to accept the attentions of another.

The tragic story of the mother, Mrs. Emma Drennon, was brought out in detail by Deputy Sheriff Lee Whately on direct examination by the Fulton county tower. The deputy declared that last Thursday, Mrs. Drennon, of poor health, came to the tower and pleaded with an hour with her daughter to mend her ways, to start life again, and promised her she would do so and comfort in her fight. She had been cruelly rebuffed and had left jail weeping "I can't stand this anymore," she said. Her son, a Deputy Sheriff Lee Whately, on direct examination by the Fulton county tower, declared that last Thursday, Mrs. Drennon, of poor health, came to the tower and pleaded with an hour with her daughter to mend her ways, to start life again, and promised her she would do so and comfort in her fight. She had been cruelly rebuffed and had left jail weeping "I can't stand this anymore," she said. Her son, a Deputy Sheriff Lee Whately, on direct examination by the Fulton county tower, declared that last Thursday, Mrs. Drennon, of poor health, came to the tower and pleaded with an hour with her daughter to mend her ways, to start life again, and promised her she would do so and comfort in her fight. She had been cruelly rebuffed and had left jail weeping "I can't stand this anymore," she said. Her son, a Deputy Sheriff Lee Whately, on direct examination by the Fulton county tower, declared that last Thursday, Mrs. Drennon, of poor health, came to the tower and pleaded with an hour with her daughter to mend her ways, to start life again, and promised her she would do so and comfort in her fight. She had been cruelly rebuffed and had left jail weeping "I can't stand this anymore," she said. Her son, a Deputy Sheriff Lee Whately, on direct examination by the Fulton county tower, declared that last Thursday, Mrs. Drennon, of poor health, came to the tower and pleaded with an hour with her daughter to mend her ways, to start life again, and promised her she would do so and comfort in her fight. She had been cruelly rebuffed and had left jail weeping "I can't stand this anymore," she said. Her son, a Deputy Sheriff Lee Whately, on direct examination by the Fulton county tower, declared that last Thursday, Mrs. Drennon, of poor health, came to the tower and pleaded with an hour with her daughter to mend her ways, to start life again, and promised her she would do so and comfort in her fight. She had been cruelly rebuffed and had left jail weeping "I can't stand this anymore," she said. Her son, a Deputy Sheriff Lee Whately, on direct examination by the Fulton county tower, declared that last Thursday, Mrs. Drennon, of poor health, came to the tower and pleaded with an hour with her daughter to mend her ways, to start life again, and promised her she would do so and comfort in her fight. She had been cruelly rebuffed and had left jail weeping "I can't stand this anymore," she said. Her son, a Deputy Sheriff Lee Whately, on direct examination by the Fulton county tower, declared that last Thursday, Mrs. Drennon, of poor health, came to the tower and pleaded with an hour with her daughter to mend her ways, to start life again, and promised her she would do so and comfort in her fight. She had been cruelly rebuffed and had left jail weeping "I can't stand this anymore," she said. Her son, a Deputy Sheriff Lee Whately, on direct examination by the Fulton county tower, declared that last Thursday, Mrs. Drennon, of poor health, came to the tower and pleaded with an hour with her daughter to mend her ways, to start life again, and promised her she would do so and comfort in her fight. She had been cruelly rebuffed and had left jail weeping "I can't stand this anymore," she said. Her son, a Deputy Sheriff Lee Whately, on direct examination by the Fulton county tower, declared that last Thursday, Mrs. Drennon, of poor health, came to the tower and pleaded with an hour with her daughter to mend her ways, to start life again, and promised her she would do so and comfort in her fight. She had been cruelly rebuffed and had left jail weeping "I can't stand this anymore," she said. Her son, a Deputy Sheriff Lee Whately, on direct examination by the Fulton county tower, declared that last Thursday, Mrs. Drennon, of poor health, came to the tower and pleaded with an hour with her daughter to mend her ways, to start life again, and promised her she would do so and comfort in her fight. She had been cruelly rebuffed and had left jail weeping "I can't stand this anymore," she said. Her son, a Deputy Sheriff Lee Whately, on direct examination by the Fulton county tower, declared that last Thursday, Mrs. Drennon, of poor health, came to the tower and pleaded with an hour with her daughter to mend her ways, to start life again, and promised her she would do so and comfort in her fight. She had been cruelly rebuffed and had left jail weeping "I can't stand this anymore," she said. Her son, a Deputy Sheriff Lee Whately, on direct examination by the Fulton county tower, declared that last Thursday, Mrs. Drennon, of poor health, came to the tower and pleaded with an hour with her daughter to mend her ways, to start life again, and promised her she would do so and comfort in her fight. She had been cruelly rebuffed and had left jail weeping "I can't stand this anymore," she said. Her son, a Deputy Sheriff Lee Whately, on direct examination by the Fulton county tower, declared that last Thursday, Mrs. Drennon, of poor health, came to the tower and pleaded with an hour with her daughter to mend her ways, to start life again, and promised her she would do so and comfort in her fight. She had been cruelly rebuffed and had left jail weeping "I can't stand this anymore," she said. Her son, a Deputy Sheriff Lee Whately, on direct examination by the Fulton county tower, declared that last Thursday, Mrs. Drennon, of poor health, came to the tower and pleaded with an hour with her daughter to mend her ways, to start life again, and promised her she would do so and comfort in her fight. She had been cruelly rebuffed and had left jail weeping "I can't stand this anymore," she said. Her son, a Deputy Sheriff Lee Whately, on direct examination by the Fulton county tower, declared that last Thursday, Mrs. Drennon, of poor health, came to the tower and pleaded with an hour with her daughter to mend her ways, to start life again, and promised her she would do so and comfort in her fight. She had been cruelly rebuffed and had left jail weeping "I can't stand this anymore," she said. Her son, a Deputy Sheriff Lee Whately, on direct examination by the Fulton county tower, declared that last Thursday, Mrs. Drennon, of poor health, came to the tower and pleaded with an hour with her daughter to mend her ways, to start life again, and promised her she would do so and comfort in her fight. She had been cruelly rebuffed and had left jail weeping "I can't stand this anymore," she said. Her son, a Deputy Sheriff Lee Whately, on direct examination by the Fulton county tower, declared that last Thursday, Mrs. Drennon, of poor health, came to the tower and pleaded with an hour with her daughter to mend her ways, to start life again, and promised her she would do so and comfort in her fight. She had been cruelly rebuffed and had left jail weeping "I can't stand this anymore," she said. Her son, a Deputy Sheriff Lee Whately, on direct examination by the Fulton county tower, declared that last Thursday, Mrs. Drennon, of poor health, came to the tower and pleaded with an hour with her daughter to mend her ways, to start life again, and promised her she would do so and comfort in her fight. She had been cruelly rebuffed and had left jail weeping "I can't stand this anymore," she said. Her son, a Deputy Sheriff Lee Whately, on direct examination by the Fulton county tower, declared that last Thursday, Mrs. Drennon, of poor health, came to the tower and pleaded with an hour with her daughter to mend her ways, to start life again, and promised her she would do so and comfort in her fight. She had been cruelly rebuffed and had left jail weeping "I can't stand this anymore," she said. Her son, a Deputy Sheriff Lee Whately, on direct examination by the Fulton county tower, declared that last Thursday, Mrs. Drennon, of poor health, came to the tower and pleaded with an hour with her daughter to mend her ways, to start life again, and promised her she would do so and comfort in her fight. She had been cruelly rebuffed and had left jail weeping "I can't stand this anymore," she said. Her son, a Deputy Sheriff Lee Whately, on direct examination by the Fulton county tower, declared that last Thursday, Mrs. Drennon, of poor health, came to the tower and pleaded with an hour with her daughter to mend her ways, to start life again, and promised her she would do so and comfort in her fight. She had been cruelly rebuffed and had left jail weeping "I can't stand this anymore," she said. Her son, a Deputy Sheriff Lee Whately, on direct examination by the Fulton county tower, declared that last Thursday, Mrs. Drennon, of poor health, came to the tower and pleaded with an hour with her daughter to mend her ways, to start life again, and promised her she would do so and comfort in her fight. She had been cruelly rebuffed and had left jail weeping "I can't stand this anymore," she said. Her son, a Deputy Sheriff Lee Whately, on direct examination by the Fulton county tower, declared that last Thursday, Mrs. Drennon, of poor health, came to the tower and pleaded with an hour with her daughter to mend her ways, to start life again, and promised her she would do so and comfort in her fight. She had been cruelly rebuffed and had left jail weeping "I can't stand this anymore," she said. Her son, a Deputy Sheriff Lee Whately, on direct examination by the Fulton county tower, declared that last Thursday, Mrs. Drennon, of poor health, came to the tower and pleaded with an hour with her daughter to mend her ways, to start life again, and promised her she would do so and comfort in her fight. She had been cruelly rebuffed and had left jail weeping "I can't stand this anymore," she said. Her son, a Deputy Sheriff Lee Whately, on direct examination by the Fulton county tower, declared that last Thursday, Mrs. Drennon, of poor health, came to the tower and pleaded with an hour with her daughter to mend her ways, to start life again, and promised her she would do so and comfort in her fight. She had been cruelly rebuffed and had left jail weeping "I can't stand this anymore," she said. Her son, a Deputy Sheriff Lee Whately, on direct examination by the Fulton county tower, declared that last Thursday, Mrs. Drennon, of poor health, came to the tower and pleaded with an hour with her daughter to mend her ways, to start life again, and promised her she would do so and comfort in her fight. She had been cruelly rebuffed and had left jail weeping "I can't stand this anymore," she said. Her son, a Deputy Sheriff Lee Whately, on direct examination by the Fulton county tower, declared that last Thursday, Mrs. Drennon, of poor health, came to the tower and pleaded with an hour with her daughter to mend her ways, to start life again, and promised her she would do so and comfort in her fight. She had been cruelly rebuffed and had left jail weeping "I can't stand this anymore," she said. Her son, a Deputy Sheriff Lee Whately, on direct examination by the Fulton county tower, declared that last Thursday, Mrs. Drennon, of poor health, came to the tower and pleaded with an hour with her daughter to mend her ways, to start life again, and promised her she would do so and comfort in her fight. She had been cruelly rebuffed and had left jail weeping "I can't stand this anymore," she said. Her son, a Deputy Sheriff Lee Whately, on direct examination by the Fulton county tower, declared that last Thursday, Mrs. Drennon, of poor health, came to the tower and pleaded with an hour with her daughter to mend her ways, to start life again, and promised her she would do so and comfort in her fight. She had been cruelly rebuffed and had left jail weeping "I can't stand this anymore," she said. Her son, a Deputy Sheriff Lee Whately, on direct examination by the Fulton county tower, declared that last Thursday, Mrs. Drennon, of poor health, came to the tower and pleaded with an hour with her daughter to mend her ways, to start life again, and promised her she would do so and comfort in her fight. She had been cruelly rebuffed and had left jail weeping "I can't stand this anymore," she said. Her son, a Deputy Sheriff Lee Whately, on direct examination by the Fulton county tower, declared that last Thursday, Mrs. Drennon, of poor health, came to the tower and pleaded with an hour with her daughter to mend her ways, to start life again, and promised her she would do so and comfort in her fight. She had been cruelly rebuffed and had left jail weeping "I can't stand this anymore," she said. Her son, a Deputy Sheriff Lee Whately, on direct examination by the Fulton county tower, declared that last Thursday, Mrs. Drennon, of poor health, came to the tower and pleaded with an hour with her daughter to mend her ways, to start life again, and promised her she would do so and comfort in her fight. She had been cruelly rebuffed and had left jail weeping "I can't stand this anymore," she said. Her son, a Deputy Sheriff Lee Whately, on direct examination by the Fulton county tower, declared that last Thursday, Mrs. Drennon, of poor health, came to the tower and pleaded with an hour with her daughter to mend her ways, to start life again, and promised her she would do so and comfort in her fight. She had been cruelly rebuffed and had left jail weeping "I can't stand this anymore," she said. Her son, a Deputy Sheriff Lee Whately, on direct examination by the Fulton county tower, declared that last Thursday, Mrs. Drennon, of poor health, came to the tower and pleaded with an hour with her daughter to mend her ways, to start life again, and promised her she would do so and comfort in her fight. She had been cruelly rebuffed and had left jail weeping "I can't stand this anymore," she said. Her son, a Deputy Sheriff Lee Whately, on direct examination by the Fulton county tower, declared that last Thursday, Mrs. Drennon, of poor health, came to the tower and pleaded with an hour with her daughter to mend her ways, to start life again, and promised her she would do so and comfort in her fight. She had been cruelly rebuffed and had left jail weeping "I can't stand this anymore," she said. Her son, a Deputy Sheriff Lee Whately, on direct examination by the Fulton county tower, declared that last Thursday, Mrs. Drennon, of poor health, came to the tower and pleaded with an hour with her daughter to mend her ways, to start life again, and promised her she would do so and comfort in her fight. She had been cruelly rebuffed and had left jail weeping "I can't stand this anymore," she said. Her son, a Deputy Sheriff Lee Whately, on direct examination by the Fulton county tower, declared that last Thursday, Mrs. Drennon, of poor health, came to the tower and pleaded with an hour with her daughter to mend her ways, to start life again, and promised her she would do so and comfort in her fight. She had been cruelly rebuffed and had left jail weeping "I can't stand this anymore," she said. Her son, a Deputy Sheriff Lee Whately, on direct examination by the Fulton county tower, declared that last Thursday, Mrs. Drennon, of poor health, came to the tower and pleaded with an hour with her daughter to mend her ways, to start life again, and promised her she would do so and comfort in her fight. She had been cruelly rebuffed and had left jail weeping "I can't stand this anymore," she said. Her son, a Deputy Sheriff Lee Whately, on direct examination by the Fulton county tower, declared that last Thursday, Mrs. Drennon, of poor health, came to the tower and pleaded with an hour with her daughter to mend her ways, to start life again, and promised her she would do so and comfort in her fight. She had been cruelly rebuffed and had left jail weeping "I can't stand this anymore," she said. Her son, a Deputy Sheriff Lee Whately, on direct examination by the Fulton county tower, declared that last Thursday, Mrs. Drennon, of poor health, came to the tower and pleaded with an hour with her daughter to mend her ways, to start life again, and promised her she would do so and comfort in her fight. She had been cruelly rebuffed and had left jail weeping "I can't stand this anymore," she said. Her son, a Deputy Sheriff Lee Whately, on direct examination by the Fulton county tower, declared that last Thursday, Mrs. Drennon, of poor health, came to the tower and pleaded with an hour with her daughter to mend her ways, to start life again, and promised her she would do so and comfort in her fight. She had been cruelly rebuffed and had left jail weeping "I can't stand this anymore," she said. Her son, a Deputy Sheriff Lee Whately, on direct examination by the Fulton county tower, declared that

NORTH DAKOTA FLOATS BONDS TO AID FARMERS

Especial Effort Will Be Made to Sell Bonds to "Liberals" Purchasers.

Chicago, January 26.—North Dakota is floating a $3,000,000 bond issue to assist farmers and farm banks hit by the falling of produce prices. Attorney General William Tamm announced here today.

Especial effort will be made to

BETTER THAN WHISKEY FOR COLDS AND FLU

New Elixir, Called Aspironal, Medicated With Latest Scientific Remedies, Used and Indorsed by European and American Army Surgeons to Cut Short a Cold and Prevent Complications.

Every Druggist in U. S. Instructed to Refund Price While You Wait at Counter If Relief Does Not Come Within Two Minutes.

Delightful Taste, Immediate Relief, Quick Warm-Up.

The sensation of the year in the drug trade is Aspironal, the two-minute cold and cough reliever, as authoritatively tested, approved and most enthusiastically recommended by the highest authorities, and proclaimed by the common people as ten times as quick and effective as whisky or rye. It cuts short a cold and cough remedy they have ever tried.

All drug stores are now supplied with this wonderful new elixir, so all you have to do is get rid of that cold or cough, hand the clerk half a dollar and say, "Give me Aspironal and tell him to serve you two teaspoonsfuls with four teaspoonsfuls of water in a glass." With your watch in your hand, take a sip of Aspironal now and call for your money back in two minutes if you cannot feel your cold fading away like a dream within that time limit. Don't be bashful for all drugstores will be glad to expect you to try it. Everybody's doing it.

When your cold or cough is relieved, take the remainder of the bottle home to your wife and babies, for Aspironal is by far the safest and most effective, the easiest to take and most agreeable cold and cough remedy for infants and children.—(adv.)

OUT O' ORDER STOMACHS

Indigestion, Acidity, Sourness and Gases ended with "Pape's Diapepsin."

The moment you eat a tablet or two of Pape's Diapepsin all the lumps of indigestion pain, the sourness, heartburn and belching of gases due to acidity, vanish—truly wonderful!

Millions of people know that it is needless to be bothered with indigestion, acidity and belching of gases due to acidity. Pape's Diapepsin neutralize acidity and give relief at once—no waiting! Don't be afraid of Pape's Diapepsin now. Don't stay dyspeptic! Try to regulate your stomach so you can eat favorite foods without causing distress. The cure is little. The benefits no great. (adv.)

HOYO DE CUBA

Prices
10c
25c
15c and 25c

"KING OF ALL"
MILD HAVANA CIGARS

Have you tried one yet? If you haven't, get on the band wagon right now.

Mild Havana leaf gives them full flavor and rich aroma.

Hoyo De Cuba. They're mild and mellow. Perfect workmanship.

They're full-bodied. You can smoke them from the time the cows go out till the cows come home again—all the time—any time—and you won't get tired of them.

At any cigar counter. In all sizes. At varying prices.

J. B. WITHERS CIGAR CO.

Phone Ivy 1800 State Distributors 134 Marietta St.

Joro's Italian Restaurant
172½ Peachtree (Upstairs)

We wish to announce the reduction in prices:
75c Lunch now.....$.65
Sunday $1.50 Dinner, now.....$1.25
Special Chicken Dinner every night.....$1.00

Today's Lunch 65c

Tagliarini Soup

Italian Polpette or Breaded Veal Cutlets

Spring Greens Italiano

Creamed Onions Assorted Pie

Coffee Tea Milk

Louisiana Governor Faces Camera While Snow Falls

John M. Parker, Louisiana's state governor, on reaching Atlanta yesterday in the midst of a snow-storm, had the unique experience for a Louisianian executive of facing a camera while flakes fell between his physiognomy and the lens.

Governor Parker is here for the Southern Tariff congress. He was among the first of the notables to arrive and he will remain notable throughout his stay. Though he has been active in politics since attaining his majority, Governor Parker is holding his first public office.

He was the first man in Louisi-

a hand that made Tammany methods seem a kid glove system.

Fought for Years.

For years, Governor Parker was known as the leader of the "silk stockings," the political faction that opposed the ward bosses of New Orleans, who also controlled the city government. For years he fought them and for years he was overwhelmed.

In 1912 he led the southern movement to nominate Roosevelt, who was nominated for the vice presidency by Colonel Roosevelt, his intimate friend.

Later he was a progressive democrat, but was defeated.

In 1916, he was again nominated for the vice presidency by the progressives, but when Colonel Roosevelt refused to head the ticket, Governor Parker threw his strength behind Wilson and rendered material service in behalf of the democratic party.

He again sought the democratic nomination in 1920, but was defeated by the old Choctaw ring. He promptly went to Washington. He promptly became the ticket headed by Col. Roosevelt, his candidate defeated Martin Behrman, mayor of New Orleans for two decades.

Interested in Tariff.

Governor Parker is particularly interested in the work of the tariff commission, for we can see the work of impressing on the minds of the Americans that the tariff should not be considered a political issue, but a economic problem.

He declared Wednesday, "we will have a peace conference held somewhere.

On their part, the British say that if they were in line to meet the Irish on neutral ground the ground chosen would not be in the United States. This country, they indicate, does not strike them as being particularly neutral, with its nine-million Irish and Irish descendants and the constant agitation under way in behalf of Irish independence. This, in effect, was the answer given to the unofficial emissary of the Irish republic.

Irish Favor United States.

The Irish repay us that the United States is as neutral as almost any country that can be named, and open to sympathy with the Irish cause, whose claims of independence must fail. It is this thought that I am going to attempt to bring home to this meeting.

Governor Parker is unique in another respect. "I have a military staff of twelve colonels," he said, "and six of them are representatives of our religious orders. I can assemble my staff I could get out a working good paper right on the spot."

Governor Parker is at the Georgia Terrace.

GOVERNOR JOHN M. PARKER

ana to attempt the supposedly impossible task of breaking the rule of the famous New Orleans ring organization, the Chetow club, which at one time ran things with the same spirit.

Through underground channels

silently and effectively, the entire Turkish population supports Mustapha Kemel.

As this is written a courier from Mustapha Kemel has arrived from the Broksses sector. He reports that the rank Graco-Turkish engagement was a victory for Mustapha Kemel rather than a victory. But he issued at the same time a call for more Turkish soldiers to enter service under Kemel's banner.

Supplies Purchased.

Former soldiers and officers of the Turkish army, I am told, are departing constantly for Angora, especially from the artillery ranks.

They have been given large supplies of food and ammunition, and that such supplies can also be procured from Istanbul.

Through underground channels silently and effectively, the entire Turkish population supports Mustapha Kemel.

As this is written a courier from Mustapha Kemel has arrived from the Broksses sector. He reports that the rank Graco-Turkish engagement was a victory for Mustapha Kemel rather than a victory. But he issued at the same time a call for more Turkish soldiers to enter service under Kemel's banner.

Missing Missive 'Twas the Good Ship Solves Mystery That Holds Many Stories

BY WESTBROOK PEGLER.
United News Staff Correspondent.

New York, January 26.—A lost letter that had lain for two days in a folder taken by a maid to the office of Benjamin P. Seigelman, well-known New York attorney, cleared up in less than one minute the mystery of the disappearance of a 15-year-old daughter, Blanche, and recalled droves of detectives from various "leads" on what seemed to day to be another mystery.

Howard will get a good night's sleep after spending 36 hours in weary, worried search of the New York harbor.

Blanche is acknowledged to be one of the prettiest girls in her society set. She is short and slight and has dark hair and a winsome complexion. On Monday morning she called the chauffeur, got into the limousine and set out ostensibly for Central Park, where she was to take two examinations.

However, the storm was that did the damage.

Five days ago Joseph Robinson, 28, a master-at-arms, who was decorated by the United States, Great Britain and France during the war, was caught in a gale on the high seas and was blown ashore to die.

Howard will get a good night's sleep after spending 36 hours in weary, worried search of the New York harbor.

Blanche is acknowledged to be one of the prettiest girls in her society set. She is short and slight and has dark hair and a winsome complexion. On Monday morning she called the chauffeur, got into the limousine and set out ostensibly for Central Park, where she was to take two examinations.

However, the storm was that did the damage.

Five days ago Joseph Robinson, 28, a master-at-arms, who was decorated by the United States, Great Britain and France during the war, was caught in a gale on the high seas and was blown ashore to die.

Howard will get a good night's sleep after spending 36 hours in weary, worried search of the New York harbor.

Blanche is acknowledged to be one of the prettiest girls in her society set. She is short and slight and has dark hair and a winsome complexion. On Monday morning she called the chauffeur, got into the limousine and set out ostensibly for Central Park, where she was to take two examinations.

However, the storm was that did the damage.

Five days ago Joseph Robinson, 28, a master-at-arms, who was decorated by the United States, Great Britain and France during the war, was caught in a gale on the high seas and was blown ashore to die.

Howard will get a good night's sleep after spending 36 hours in weary, worried search of the New York harbor.

Blanche is acknowledged to be one of the prettiest girls in her society set. She is short and slight and has dark hair and a winsome complexion. On Monday morning she called the chauffeur, got into the limousine and set out ostensibly for Central Park, where she was to take two examinations.

However, the storm was that did the damage.

Five days ago Joseph Robinson, 28, a master-at-arms, who was decorated by the United States, Great Britain and France during the war, was caught in a gale on the high seas and was blown ashore to die.

Howard will get a good night's sleep after spending 36 hours in weary, worried search of the New York harbor.

Blanche is acknowledged to be one of the prettiest girls in her society set. She is short and slight and has dark hair and a winsome complexion. On Monday morning she called the chauffeur, got into the limousine and set out ostensibly for Central Park, where she was to take two examinations.

However, the storm was that did the damage.

Five days ago Joseph Robinson, 28, a master-at-arms, who was decorated by the United States, Great Britain and France during the war, was caught in a gale on the high seas and was blown ashore to die.

Howard will get a good night's sleep after spending 36 hours in weary, worried search of the New York harbor.

Blanche is acknowledged to be one of the prettiest girls in her society set. She is short and slight and has dark hair and a winsome complexion. On Monday morning she called the chauffeur, got into the limousine and set out ostensibly for Central Park, where she was to take two examinations.

However, the storm was that did the damage.

Five days ago Joseph Robinson, 28, a master-at-arms, who was decorated by the United States, Great Britain and France during the war, was caught in a gale on the high seas and was blown ashore to die.

Howard will get a good night's sleep after spending 36 hours in weary, worried search of the New York harbor.

Blanche is acknowledged to be one of the prettiest girls in her society set. She is short and slight and has dark hair and a winsome complexion. On Monday morning she called the chauffeur, got into the limousine and set out ostensibly for Central Park, where she was to take two examinations.

However, the storm was that did the damage.

Five days ago Joseph Robinson, 28, a master-at-arms, who was decorated by the United States, Great Britain and France during the war, was caught in a gale on the high seas and was blown ashore to die.

Howard will get a good night's sleep after spending 36 hours in weary, worried search of the New York harbor.

Blanche is acknowledged to be one of the prettiest girls in her society set. She is short and slight and has dark hair and a winsome complexion. On Monday morning she called the chauffeur, got into the limousine and set out ostensibly for Central Park, where she was to take two examinations.

However, the storm was that did the damage.

Five days ago Joseph Robinson, 28, a master-at-arms, who was decorated by the United States, Great Britain and France during the war, was caught in a gale on the high seas and was blown ashore to die.

Howard will get a good night's sleep after spending 36 hours in weary, worried search of the New York harbor.

Blanche is acknowledged to be one of the prettiest girls in her society set. She is short and slight and has dark hair and a winsome complexion. On Monday morning she called the chauffeur, got into the limousine and set out ostensibly for Central Park, where she was to take two examinations.

However, the storm was that did the damage.

Five days ago Joseph Robinson, 28, a master-at-arms, who was decorated by the United States, Great Britain and France during the war, was caught in a gale on the high seas and was blown ashore to die.

Howard will get a good night's sleep after spending 36 hours in weary, worried search of the New York harbor.

Blanche is acknowledged to be one of the prettiest girls in her society set. She is short and slight and has dark hair and a winsome complexion. On Monday morning she called the chauffeur, got into the limousine and set out ostensibly for Central Park, where she was to take two examinations.

However, the storm was that did the damage.

Five days ago Joseph Robinson, 28, a master-at-arms, who was decorated by the United States, Great Britain and France during the war, was caught in a gale on the high seas and was blown ashore to die.

Howard will get a good night's sleep after spending 36 hours in weary, worried search of the New York harbor.

Blanche is acknowledged to be one of the prettiest girls in her society set. She is short and slight and has dark hair and a winsome complexion. On Monday morning she called the chauffeur, got into the limousine and set out ostensibly for Central Park, where she was to take two examinations.

However, the storm was that did the damage.

Five days ago Joseph Robinson, 28, a master-at-arms, who was decorated by the United States, Great Britain and France during the war, was caught in a gale on the high seas and was blown ashore to die.

Howard will get a good night's sleep after spending 36 hours in weary, worried search of the New York harbor.

Blanche is acknowledged to be one of the prettiest girls in her society set. She is short and slight and has dark hair and a winsome complexion. On Monday morning she called the chauffeur, got into the limousine and set out ostensibly for Central Park, where she was to take two examinations.

However, the storm was that did the damage.

Five days ago Joseph Robinson, 28, a master-at-arms, who was decorated by the United States, Great Britain and France during the war, was caught in a gale on the high seas and was blown ashore to die.

Howard will get a good night's sleep after

Rugs From The Orient

Rugs from the Orient are offered at prices materially reduced from the prices which prevailed last year. We have a number of very beautiful examples of Near Eastern Weaving from which to select. Purchased to last a life time, we assure you of the condition and authenticity of every Oriental Rug we sell.

Chamberlin-Johnson-DuBose Co.

86-96 WHITEHALL

ANNOUNCESHandsome Floor And Table Lamps

In Lamps for the Floor and for the Table we show many innovations for the new season. There are polychrome and carved woods in antique gold, handsome shades of vellum and of silk. Some hand painted and in colors to conform to any decorative plan. Prices here are based on the new low levels for the year.

A February Sale of High-Class Furniture

Fine Wilton And Axminster Rugs

Rug workers are on strike. They went out about a week ago and they are liable to be out for some time. This is very apt to make it hard to get RUGS of the quality we sell. In that case Rugs will most certainly increase in price, as present stocks are exhausted. We have adjusted the prices of our Wilton, Axminster and other Rugs to conform to the prices for the season, which we KNOW will not decline. We have complete selection of the very best RUGS made, in pleasing designs and in a color range that will fit into any decorative idea. Conditions point to the fact that delay in purchasing RUGS may cost you money.

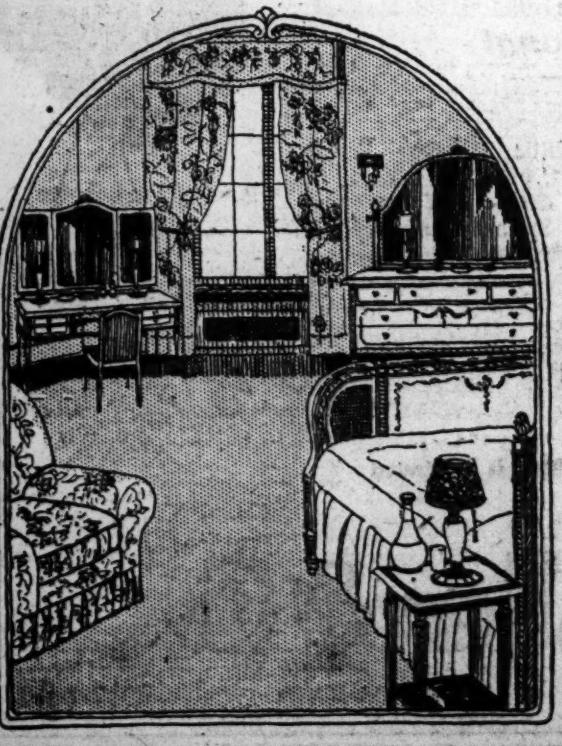

A number of imported Rugs in Rag designs, woven by the Japanese, and in grass in oval patterns are here now. These, too, are very low-priced compared with prices which prevailed last year.

Rug Section—Third Floor

Living Room Furniture

	WAS	NOW
Three-piece living room suite, consisting of sofa, chair and rocker, upholstered with tapestry, loose spring cushions on davenport, spring arms and back.....	$ 545.00	$ 360.00
Three-piece living room suite, consisting of sofa, chair and rocker, all covered in tapestry, loose cushions, spring back and spring arm.....	$ 560.00	$ 420.00
Three-piece living room suite, Hepplewhite pattern, upholstered in solid gray velour, loose velour cushions in blue, all down, very handsome suite, including sofa, high back and low back chair.....	$ 765.00	$ 525.00
Three-piece mahogany suite, consisting of sofa, chair and rocker, cane back, loose spring cushions, covered in tapestry, pillow back, with sofa.....	$ 550.00	$ 375.00
Easy chair upholstered in tapestry, with spring back and loose spring cushions.....	$ 91.00	$ 68.00
Rocker to match.....	$ 91.00	$ 68.00
Davenport to match.....	$ 190.00	$ 141.00
Wing chair allover upholstered in tapestry.....	$ 90.00	$ 60.00
Two push button Morris chairs, upholstered with foot rest.....	$ 100.00	$ 66.50
Two-push button Morris chairs, with adjusted foot rest—each.....	$ 75.00	$ 50.00
Two push button chairs, with adjusted foot rest—each.....	$ 110.00	$ 73.00
Two-piece living room suite, consisting of sofa and chair, upholstered in tan velour, loose spring cushions and arms, cane back and loose pillows, solid mahogany frame.....	$ 510.00	$ 375.00
Two-piece living room suite (Chippendale) in mahogany, upholstered in blue and silver velour, very handsome grade, loose down cushions and pillow, consisting of sofa and large easy chair.....	$ 860.00	$ 675.00
Mahogany Chippendale chair, blue and gold velour, cane back and arms, with loose down cushions and pillow back.....	$ 280.00	$ 210.00
One Chippendale chair, upholstered in brown denim, loose down cushion and padded back.....	$ 275.00	$ 195.00
One davenport, upholstered in tan denim, with loose down cushions, spring back, very handsome piece of furniture.....	$ 395.00	$ 295.00

Sale Commences At Nine
Today

Furniture Section—Fourth Floor

HISTORY has a habit of repeating itself, this is especially true of Industrial History. You will find the men who deal with statistics and who are advisers to the Business World base their findings on the happenings of the past and the probability of the future conforming to the past.

It is a fact that in any serious decline of the market, be it the Stock market of Wall street, the Furniture market of Atlanta, the thing is invariably overdone, with the result that the REBOUND OF PRICES is as sudden and unexpected as the decline was drastic and extreme. People who overstay a declining market are always caught and must go in and purchase what they need at the rising price.

IT HAPPENS IN WALL STREET.

IT HAPPENS IN ATLANTA.

IT HAPPENS THE WORLD OVER.

Prices cannot go down forever. Goods cannot be sold for nothing. We have gone carefully over our entire stock of Furniture and have readjusted the prices to a point which is on and in many cases below the present market.

EVERY SUITE OF FURNITURE LISTED IN THIS ADVERTISEMENT IS A "CLOSE-OUT PATTERN." And is priced as low as you will ever be able to purchase Furniture of the same Quality. These are Suites we will not be able to duplicate and which therefore we must discontinue. Some rare values are to be noted in these offerings.

The same thing is true of numbers of the individual pieces offered. In fact throughout this advertisement, you will find that offerings are made which it is scarcely possible will ever be duplicated or surpassed.

Bed Room Furniture

	WAS	NOW
Old ivory dresser.....	$160.00	$125.00
Old ivory chiffonet.....	$145.00	$ 99.00
Old ivory vanity.....	$175.00	$147.00
Old ivory bench.....	$ 22.00	$ 18.00
Old ivory chair.....	$ 25.00	$ 17.00
Old ivory rocker.....	$ 26.00	$ 18.00
Old ivory bed.....	$110.00	$ 75.00
Eight-piece bedroom suite consisting of gray enamel dresser, chiffonier, bed, toilet table, chair, rocker, bench and night table.....	$794.00	$529.00
Four-piece bedroom suite, old ivory.....	$645.00	$485.00
Bench to match.....	$ 25.00	$ 19.00
Nine-piece old ivory suite consisting of dresser, vanity, dressing table, twin beds, night table, rocker, chair and bench.....	$1,005.00	$800.00
Eight-piece old ivory bedroom suite, consisting of dresser, bed, chiffonette, dressing table, night table, chair, rocker and bench.....	$637.00	$470.00
Twin beds to match above suite, each.....	$ 90.00	$ 65.00
Brown mahogany chest of drawers.....	$125.00	$ 85.00
Brown mahogany twin beds, each.....	$190.00	$135.00
Four-piece mahogany bedroom suite consisting of dresser, chiffonier, toilet table and bed.....	$625.00	$425.00
Seven-piece walnut bedroom suite.....	$1,127.00	$800.00
Seven-piece bedroom suite consisting of dresser, vanity, bed, chiffonier, bench chair and rocker.....	$959.00	$720.00
Seven-piece bedroom suite, $1,400.....	$950.00	$720.00
Four-piece walnut bedroom suite.....	$514.00	$350.00
Nine-piece walnut bedroom suite.....	$816.50	$595.00
Odd walnut dresser and bed to match.....	$340.00	$250.00
Mahogany poster bed.....	$125.00	$ 94.00
Chiffonier to match.....	$165.00	$120.00
Mahogany dressing table.....	$125.00	$ 85.00
Mahogany chiffonier.....	$130.00	$ 90.00
Four-piece mahogany bedroom suite.....	$545.00	$410.00
Seven-piece bedroom suite consisting of dresser, chiffonier, dressing table, bed, bench, chair and rocker.....	$830.00	$620.00
Four-piece mahogany bedroom suite.....	$600.00	$450.00
Odd toilet table in mahogany.....	$ 65.00	$ 45.00
Odd mahogany chiffonier.....	$115.00	$ 80.00
Four-piece bedroom suite consisting of twin beds, chiffonier and toilet table.....	$375.00	$285.00
Four-piece walnut bedroom suite consisting of dresser, chiffonier and twin beds.....	$400.00	$299.00
One walnut dressing table with two extra mirrors.....	$185.00	$145.00
Mahogany poster bed.....	$110.00	$ 85.00

Dining Room Furniture

	WAS	NOW
Nine-piece mahogany suite (Chippendale) consisting of sideboard, china closet, table, one arm chair and five side chairs.....	$790.00	$592.00
Four-piece dining room suite (Queen Anne) consisting of china closet, sideboard, serving table, extension table.....	$605.00	$455.00
Four-piece mahogany dining room suite consisting of sideboard, server, china cabinet, extension table.....	$500.00	$375.00
Ten-piece mahogany dining room suite (Chippendale) $1,283.00	$855.00
One china cabinet, mahogany.....	$165.00	$110.00
One odd china cabinet, mahogany.....	$160.00	$110.00
One odd serving table.....	$ 92.00	$ 60.00
One Colonial mahogany sideboard, 66 inches long.....	$320.00	$240.00
One Colonial mahogany extension table, 60-inch top.....	$255.00	$190.00
One Colonial serving table.....	$105.00	$ 79.00
Colonial mahogany dining room chairs.....	$ 22.50	$ 17.50
Colonial mahogany arm dining room chair, each.....	$ 34.50	$ 24.50
Four-piece mahogany dining room suite (Sheraton with black wood inlay) consisting of 6-foot sideboard, square dining table, server and china cabinets.....	$1,010.00	$680.00
Ten-pieces mahogany dining room suite (Louis XVI) consisting of 6-foot sideboard, square dining table, china cabinet, server, two arm chairs and four side chairs.....	$1,402.00	$1,050.00
One mahogany sideboard, 60 inches long.....	$135.00	$103.00
One mahogany china cabinet.....	$105.00	$ 80.00
One mahogany serving table.....	$ 65.00	$ 49.00
Mahogany chairs.....	$ 18.50	$ 14.00
One mahogany extension table, 54 inches, each.....	$100.00	$ 75.00
Mahogany sideboard, 60 inches (Queen Anne).....	$160.00	$120.00
Mahogany china cabinet (Queen Anne)	$120.00	$ 90.00
Mahogany extension table (Queen Anne) 48-in. top.....	$100.00	$ 75.00
Mahogany serving table (Queen Anne)	$ 75.00	$ 56.00
Ten-piece mahogany dining room suite consisting of 66-inch sideboard, 54-inch extension table, china cabinet, server and six chairs.....	$707.00	$530.00
Five-piece Colonial dull mahogany consisting of three side chairs and two arm chairs, each.....	$ 65.00	$ 50.00
One mahogany china cabinet	$110.00	$ 72.50

Beautiful New Nets and Draperies

The windows are the Soul of the Home. From the outside they indicate to the passerby what sort of people live within, from the inside they express to the visitor the taste of the family and its status in the world of affairs. To the home folks themselves the windows are a comfort and a source of pleasure when they are properly draped. We have for your selection all the newer designs in Nets and Draperies for Windows. In addition we offer you, free of charge, the services of competent interior decorators to assist you in making your draperies most effective. We undertake the entire work of designing, cutting and hanging, and in this department, too, prices are adjusted to the new low levels of 1921. You will find here only such goods as you would care to choose for your home. First grade in every respect and the best to be had anywhere.

Draperies' Section—Third Floor

Breakfast Room Suites

	WAS	NOW

<tbl_r cells="3" ix="1" maxc

Society

Ladies' Society Meets.

The Ladies' Memorial Association will have its monthly meeting at Carnegie Library at 10:30 o'clock Friday morning, according to an announcement Wednesday by Miss Anna Williams, the corresponding secretary of the organization.

Boys' High To Give Dance.

Boys' High school will give a dance on Saturday night at a room in the school. All are invited and the admission will be $1 single or per couple.

Lorado Taft To Lecture.

The Public Lecture association of Agnes Scott college will present Lorado Taft, the eminent American sculptor, in his lecture on "Renaissance Art," Thursday evening.

DOCTORS USE CALOTABS FOR COLDS AND FLU

Influenza and Grippe, Like Ordinary Colds, Require Calotabs, the Purified and Refined Calomel Tablets That Are Nauseless, Safe and Sure.

Doctors are warning the public that simple colds and mild cases of influenza often lead to pneumonia and other serious complications. They say that every cold should receive immediate attention and that the first step in the treatment is to make sure that you are well. For this purpose Calotabs, the perfected, nauseless calomel tablets are the surest, best and most agreeable remedy.

One Calotab at bed time with a swallow of water—that's all, no salts, no nausea, and no upsetting of the digestion and appetite. Next morning you will feel better because your liver is active, your system is purified and refreshed and you are fine with a hearty appetite for breakfast. Eat what you please—no danger.

For your protection, Calotabs are sold only in original sealed packages. Write the five leading drugstores recommended and guarantee Calotabs and are authorized to refund the price if you are not delighted with them.—(adv.)

LADIES EARN GOOD SALARIES
at home or studio, retouching negatives for photographers. Can learn in 3 months or less.
Walter E. Lenney
326 Ponce de Leon Avenue, Atlanta

SUFFERED ALL A WOMAN COULD

Mrs. Meyer Finally Found Relief and Health in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Orange, Cal.—"I always feel very bad when you, as some twenty years ago three doctors said I had to have a serious operation. I had tumors, and ulcers which would gather and break. I had displacement so badly that I could hardly sit down at times, and it seemed as if I suffered everything that a woman could suffer. Then some one advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I took it until I was cured and saved from the operation. I have told women of your wonderful medicine times without number, and I am willing that you should use these facts and my name if you like. I also used your Compound during the Change, and I can do all my own work but the heavy part and can walk miles every day as I help my husband in the office."—Mrs. J. H. MEYER, 412 South Orange St., Orange, California.

A great many women who suffered like me have been restored to health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

MILLION IS LEFT DIXIE BAPTISTS

Southern Convention Will Come Into Fund Upon Death of Brown Will Beneficiaries.

Anderson, S. C., January 26.—Approximately $1,000,000 in bonds and personal and real estate will go to the foreign mission board of the Southern Baptist convention upon the death of Miss Varina D. Brown and Miss Beasie F. Tribble, beneficiaries under the will of the Col. Joseph Newton Brown, who died at his home here Monday.

The will made public today showed that Col. Brown, at the time of his death, was ranking surviving officer of the Confederate army in this state, also left $5,600 in trust for Anderson college and Anderson County hospital together and $15,000 to Connie Maxwell Orphanage, at Greenwood S. C. The only other bequest was $12,000 to Mrs. Emma F. Tribble, of Anderson.

The general state student volunteer conference has been announced for March 4-6 at Piedmont college, Demorest, Ga. Delegates are being chosen from the schools, business, Oglethorpe and Tech, where student volunteer unions have been organized for some time. The conference, to be held in Atlanta, members for two of the state officers come from this city. Miss Anna Marie Lassell of Agnes Scott, secretary and James E. Ellis, of Emory university, treasurer. The state president is Robert L. Allen of the University.

A special feature of the program this year is the pageant planned for the opening night, a poster exhibition and entertainment room to be opened the next day. J. Edward Barnes, of Emory university, is in charge of the musical program, which promises to be unique.

Among the conference speakers will be a student volunteer secretary from the national headquarters in New York, representative of the various mission boards and several returned missionaries.

The will made public today showed that Col. Brown, at the time of his death, was ranking surviving officer of the Confederate army in this state, also left $5,600 in trust for Anderson college and Anderson County hospital together and $15,000 to Connie Maxwell Orphanage, at Greenwood S. C. The only other bequest was $12,000 to Mrs. Emma F. Tribble, of Anderson.

The will made public today showed that Col. Brown, at the time of his death, was ranking surviving officer of the Confederate army in this state, also left $5,600 in trust for Anderson college and Anderson County hospital together and $15,000 to Connie Maxwell Orphanage, at Greenwood S. C. The only other bequest was $12,000 to Mrs. Emma F. Tribble, of Anderson.

The will made public today showed that Col. Brown, at the time of his death, was ranking surviving officer of the Confederate army in this state, also left $5,600 in trust for Anderson college and Anderson County hospital together and $15,000 to Connie Maxwell Orphanage, at Greenwood S. C. The only other bequest was $12,000 to Mrs. Emma F. Tribble, of Anderson.

The will made public today showed that Col. Brown, at the time of his death, was ranking surviving officer of the Confederate army in this state, also left $5,600 in trust for Anderson college and Anderson County hospital together and $15,000 to Connie Maxwell Orphanage, at Greenwood S. C. The only other bequest was $12,000 to Mrs. Emma F. Tribble, of Anderson.

The will made public today showed that Col. Brown, at the time of his death, was ranking surviving officer of the Confederate army in this state, also left $5,600 in trust for Anderson college and Anderson County hospital together and $15,000 to Connie Maxwell Orphanage, at Greenwood S. C. The only other bequest was $12,000 to Mrs. Emma F. Tribble, of Anderson.

The will made public today showed that Col. Brown, at the time of his death, was ranking surviving officer of the Confederate army in this state, also left $5,600 in trust for Anderson college and Anderson County hospital together and $15,000 to Connie Maxwell Orphanage, at Greenwood S. C. The only other bequest was $12,000 to Mrs. Emma F. Tribble, of Anderson.

The will made public today showed that Col. Brown, at the time of his death, was ranking surviving officer of the Confederate army in this state, also left $5,600 in trust for Anderson college and Anderson County hospital together and $15,000 to Connie Maxwell Orphanage, at Greenwood S. C. The only other bequest was $12,000 to Mrs. Emma F. Tribble, of Anderson.

The will made public today showed that Col. Brown, at the time of his death, was ranking surviving officer of the Confederate army in this state, also left $5,600 in trust for Anderson college and Anderson County hospital together and $15,000 to Connie Maxwell Orphanage, at Greenwood S. C. The only other bequest was $12,000 to Mrs. Emma F. Tribble, of Anderson.

The will made public today showed that Col. Brown, at the time of his death, was ranking surviving officer of the Confederate army in this state, also left $5,600 in trust for Anderson college and Anderson County hospital together and $15,000 to Connie Maxwell Orphanage, at Greenwood S. C. The only other bequest was $12,000 to Mrs. Emma F. Tribble, of Anderson.

The will made public today showed that Col. Brown, at the time of his death, was ranking surviving officer of the Confederate army in this state, also left $5,600 in trust for Anderson college and Anderson County hospital together and $15,000 to Connie Maxwell Orphanage, at Greenwood S. C. The only other bequest was $12,000 to Mrs. Emma F. Tribble, of Anderson.

The will made public today showed that Col. Brown, at the time of his death, was ranking surviving officer of the Confederate army in this state, also left $5,600 in trust for Anderson college and Anderson County hospital together and $15,000 to Connie Maxwell Orphanage, at Greenwood S. C. The only other bequest was $12,000 to Mrs. Emma F. Tribble, of Anderson.

The will made public today showed that Col. Brown, at the time of his death, was ranking surviving officer of the Confederate army in this state, also left $5,600 in trust for Anderson college and Anderson County hospital together and $15,000 to Connie Maxwell Orphanage, at Greenwood S. C. The only other bequest was $12,000 to Mrs. Emma F. Tribble, of Anderson.

The will made public today showed that Col. Brown, at the time of his death, was ranking surviving officer of the Confederate army in this state, also left $5,600 in trust for Anderson college and Anderson County hospital together and $15,000 to Connie Maxwell Orphanage, at Greenwood S. C. The only other bequest was $12,000 to Mrs. Emma F. Tribble, of Anderson.

The will made public today showed that Col. Brown, at the time of his death, was ranking surviving officer of the Confederate army in this state, also left $5,600 in trust for Anderson college and Anderson County hospital together and $15,000 to Connie Maxwell Orphanage, at Greenwood S. C. The only other bequest was $12,000 to Mrs. Emma F. Tribble, of Anderson.

The will made public today showed that Col. Brown, at the time of his death, was ranking surviving officer of the Confederate army in this state, also left $5,600 in trust for Anderson college and Anderson County hospital together and $15,000 to Connie Maxwell Orphanage, at Greenwood S. C. The only other bequest was $12,000 to Mrs. Emma F. Tribble, of Anderson.

The will made public today showed that Col. Brown, at the time of his death, was ranking surviving officer of the Confederate army in this state, also left $5,600 in trust for Anderson college and Anderson County hospital together and $15,000 to Connie Maxwell Orphanage, at Greenwood S. C. The only other bequest was $12,000 to Mrs. Emma F. Tribble, of Anderson.

The will made public today showed that Col. Brown, at the time of his death, was ranking surviving officer of the Confederate army in this state, also left $5,600 in trust for Anderson college and Anderson County hospital together and $15,000 to Connie Maxwell Orphanage, at Greenwood S. C. The only other bequest was $12,000 to Mrs. Emma F. Tribble, of Anderson.

The will made public today showed that Col. Brown, at the time of his death, was ranking surviving officer of the Confederate army in this state, also left $5,600 in trust for Anderson college and Anderson County hospital together and $15,000 to Connie Maxwell Orphanage, at Greenwood S. C. The only other bequest was $12,000 to Mrs. Emma F. Tribble, of Anderson.

The will made public today showed that Col. Brown, at the time of his death, was ranking surviving officer of the Confederate army in this state, also left $5,600 in trust for Anderson college and Anderson County hospital together and $15,000 to Connie Maxwell Orphanage, at Greenwood S. C. The only other bequest was $12,000 to Mrs. Emma F. Tribble, of Anderson.

The will made public today showed that Col. Brown, at the time of his death, was ranking surviving officer of the Confederate army in this state, also left $5,600 in trust for Anderson college and Anderson County hospital together and $15,000 to Connie Maxwell Orphanage, at Greenwood S. C. The only other bequest was $12,000 to Mrs. Emma F. Tribble, of Anderson.

The will made public today showed that Col. Brown, at the time of his death, was ranking surviving officer of the Confederate army in this state, also left $5,600 in trust for Anderson college and Anderson County hospital together and $15,000 to Connie Maxwell Orphanage, at Greenwood S. C. The only other bequest was $12,000 to Mrs. Emma F. Tribble, of Anderson.

The will made public today showed that Col. Brown, at the time of his death, was ranking surviving officer of the Confederate army in this state, also left $5,600 in trust for Anderson college and Anderson County hospital together and $15,000 to Connie Maxwell Orphanage, at Greenwood S. C. The only other bequest was $12,000 to Mrs. Emma F. Tribble, of Anderson.

The will made public today showed that Col. Brown, at the time of his death, was ranking surviving officer of the Confederate army in this state, also left $5,600 in trust for Anderson college and Anderson County hospital together and $15,000 to Connie Maxwell Orphanage, at Greenwood S. C. The only other bequest was $12,000 to Mrs. Emma F. Tribble, of Anderson.

The will made public today showed that Col. Brown, at the time of his death, was ranking surviving officer of the Confederate army in this state, also left $5,600 in trust for Anderson college and Anderson County hospital together and $15,000 to Connie Maxwell Orphanage, at Greenwood S. C. The only other bequest was $12,000 to Mrs. Emma F. Tribble, of Anderson.

The will made public today showed that Col. Brown, at the time of his death, was ranking surviving officer of the Confederate army in this state, also left $5,600 in trust for Anderson college and Anderson County hospital together and $15,000 to Connie Maxwell Orphanage, at Greenwood S. C. The only other bequest was $12,000 to Mrs. Emma F. Tribble, of Anderson.

The will made public today showed that Col. Brown, at the time of his death, was ranking surviving officer of the Confederate army in this state, also left $5,600 in trust for Anderson college and Anderson County hospital together and $15,000 to Connie Maxwell Orphanage, at Greenwood S. C. The only other bequest was $12,000 to Mrs. Emma F. Tribble, of Anderson.

The will made public today showed that Col. Brown, at the time of his death, was ranking surviving officer of the Confederate army in this state, also left $5,600 in trust for Anderson college and Anderson County hospital together and $15,000 to Connie Maxwell Orphanage, at Greenwood S. C. The only other bequest was $12,000 to Mrs. Emma F. Tribble, of Anderson.

The will made public today showed that Col. Brown, at the time of his death, was ranking surviving officer of the Confederate army in this state, also left $5,600 in trust for Anderson college and Anderson County hospital together and $15,000 to Connie Maxwell Orphanage, at Greenwood S. C. The only other bequest was $12,000 to Mrs. Emma F. Tribble, of Anderson.

The will made public today showed that Col. Brown, at the time of his death, was ranking surviving officer of the Confederate army in this state, also left $5,600 in trust for Anderson college and Anderson County hospital together and $15,000 to Connie Maxwell Orphanage, at Greenwood S. C. The only other bequest was $12,000 to Mrs. Emma F. Tribble, of Anderson.

The will made public today showed that Col. Brown, at the time of his death, was ranking surviving officer of the Confederate army in this state, also left $5,600 in trust for Anderson college and Anderson County hospital together and $15,000 to Connie Maxwell Orphanage, at Greenwood S. C. The only other bequest was $12,000 to Mrs. Emma F. Tribble, of Anderson.

The will made public today showed that Col. Brown, at the time of his death, was ranking surviving officer of the Confederate army in this state, also left $5,600 in trust for Anderson college and Anderson County hospital together and $15,000 to Connie Maxwell Orphanage, at Greenwood S. C. The only other bequest was $12,000 to Mrs. Emma F. Tribble, of Anderson.

The will made public today showed that Col. Brown, at the time of his death, was ranking surviving officer of the Confederate army in this state, also left $5,600 in trust for Anderson college and Anderson County hospital together and $15,000 to Connie Maxwell Orphanage, at Greenwood S. C. The only other bequest was $12,000 to Mrs. Emma F. Tribble, of Anderson.

The will made public today showed that Col. Brown, at the time of his death, was ranking surviving officer of the Confederate army in this state, also left $5,600 in trust for Anderson college and Anderson County hospital together and $15,000 to Connie Maxwell Orphanage, at Greenwood S. C. The only other bequest was $12,000 to Mrs. Emma F. Tribble, of Anderson.

The will made public today showed that Col. Brown, at the time of his death, was ranking surviving officer of the Confederate army in this state, also left $5,600 in trust for Anderson college and Anderson County hospital together and $15,000 to Connie Maxwell Orphanage, at Greenwood S. C. The only other bequest was $12,000 to Mrs. Emma F. Tribble, of Anderson.

The will made public today showed that Col. Brown, at the time of his death, was ranking surviving officer of the Confederate army in this state, also left $5,600 in trust for Anderson college and Anderson County hospital together and $15,000 to Connie Maxwell Orphanage, at Greenwood S. C. The only other bequest was $12,000 to Mrs. Emma F. Tribble, of Anderson.

The will made public today showed that Col. Brown, at the time of his death, was ranking surviving officer of the Confederate army in this state, also left $5,600 in trust for Anderson college and Anderson County hospital together and $15,000 to Connie Maxwell Orphanage, at Greenwood S. C. The only other bequest was $12,000 to Mrs. Emma F. Tribble, of Anderson.

The will made public today showed that Col. Brown, at the time of his death, was ranking surviving officer of the Confederate army in this state, also left $5,600 in trust for Anderson college and Anderson County hospital together and $15,000 to Connie Maxwell Orphanage, at Greenwood S. C. The only other bequest was $12,000 to Mrs. Emma F. Tribble, of Anderson.

The will made public today showed that Col. Brown, at the time of his death, was ranking surviving officer of the Confederate army in this state, also left $5,600 in trust for Anderson college and Anderson County hospital together and $15,000 to Connie Maxwell Orphanage, at Greenwood S. C. The only other bequest was $12,000 to Mrs. Emma F. Tribble, of Anderson.

The will made public today showed that Col. Brown, at the time of his death, was ranking surviving officer of the Confederate army in this state, also left $5,600 in trust for Anderson college and Anderson County hospital together and $15,000 to Connie Maxwell Orphanage, at Greenwood S. C. The only other bequest was $12,000 to Mrs. Emma F. Tribble, of Anderson.

The will made public today showed that Col. Brown, at the time of his death, was ranking surviving officer of the Confederate army in this state, also left $5,600 in trust for Anderson college and Anderson County hospital together and $15,000 to Connie Maxwell Orphanage, at Greenwood S. C. The only other bequest was $12,000 to Mrs. Emma F. Tribble, of Anderson.

The will made public today showed that Col. Brown, at the time of his death, was ranking surviving officer of the Confederate army in this state, also left $5,600 in trust for Anderson college and Anderson County hospital together and $15,000 to Connie Maxwell Orphanage, at Greenwood S. C. The only other bequest was $12,000 to Mrs. Emma F. Tribble, of Anderson.

The will made public today showed that Col. Brown, at the time of his death, was ranking surviving officer of the Confederate army in this state, also left $5,600 in trust for Anderson college and Anderson County hospital together and $15,000 to Connie Maxwell Orphanage, at Greenwood S. C. The only other bequest was $12,000 to Mrs. Emma F. Tribble, of Anderson.

The will made public today showed that Col. Brown, at the time of his death, was ranking surviving officer of the Confederate army in this state, also left $5,600 in trust for Anderson college and Anderson County hospital together and $15,000 to Connie Maxwell Orphanage, at Greenwood S. C. The only other bequest was $12,000 to Mrs. Emma F. Tribble, of Anderson.

The will made public today showed that Col. Brown, at the time of his death, was ranking surviving officer of the Confederate army in this state, also left $5,600 in trust for Anderson college and Anderson County hospital together and $15,000 to Connie Maxwell Orphanage, at Greenwood S. C. The only other bequest was $12,000 to Mrs. Emma F. Tribble, of Anderson.

The will made public today showed that Col. Brown, at the time of his death, was ranking surviving officer of the Confederate army in this state, also left $5,600 in trust for Anderson college and Anderson County hospital together and $15,000 to Connie Maxwell Orphanage, at Greenwood S. C. The only other bequest was $12,000 to Mrs. Emma F. Tribble, of Anderson.

The will made public today showed that Col. Brown, at the time of his death, was ranking surviving officer of the Confederate army in this state, also left $5,600 in trust for Anderson college and Anderson County hospital together and $15,000 to Connie Maxwell Orphanage, at Greenwood S. C. The only other bequest was $12,000 to Mrs.

THE CONSTITUTION

The Standard Southern Newspaper.

Published Daily, Sunday, Tri-Weekly.

CLARK HOWELL

Editor and General Manager.

Directors: Clark Howell, Ruby Robinson, Albert Howell, Jr., E. E. Black, H. W. Gandy.

Entered at the post office at Atlanta as second-class mail matter.

Telephone Main 6000.

ATLANTA, GA., January 27, 1921.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES.

Daily	Wk.	125c	25c	5 Mon. 1 Yr.
Monday	200	50c	12.50	$5.00 19.50
Daily	100	20c	4.00 7.50
Sunday	100	50c	1.00 1.75
Single Copy—Daily	50c	—	50c

J. A. HOLLOWAY, Constitution Building, 100 Peachtree Street, manager for all territory outside of Atlanta.

The Constitution Washington office is at New Elliott House, corner of Fourteenth and F streets, N. W. Mr. J. A. Holloway, correspond.

THE CONSTITUTION is on sale in New York City by J. A. Gandy after issue. It can be had at Dutton's Newsstands, Broadway and Forty-second street (Times building corner); Thirty-eighth and Broad; and Twenty-ninth street and Broadway.

The Constitution is not responsible for advances, payments to or out-of-town local carriers, dealers or agents.

Member of the Associated Press. The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the use of publication of all news items, editorials, columns and other material credited in this paper and also the local news published herein.

ORGANIZING FOR BONDS.

The first step toward organizing for bonds has been taken by the board of education in its approval of the mayor's suggestion that a committee, consisting of the heads of major civic organizations and of the municipal departments directly affected by the proposed bond issue, be designated to assume charge of the movement for a city-wide organization for the promotion of the bond campaign. Under this plan the first bond organization committee would consist of the following members:

Mrs. Albert Thornton, Sr., president of the Federation of Women's Clubs; W. C. Carraway, president of the Federation of Trade; Lee Ashcraft, president of the chamber of commerce; Mrs. John Spalding, president of the Parent-Teacher associations; W. W. Gaines, president of the board of education; W. E. Dunn, president of the water board; Councilman C. E. Buchanan, chairman of the sewers and drains committee, and Councilman J. H. Olson, chairman of the committee on bridges.

This is an excellent beginning. If this plan is adopted the committee will, of course, extend its functions by the organization of subsidiary committees covering every ward in the city and, later on, every city block, thus carrying the organization directly to every fireside.

The service and the aggressive co-operation of every civic enterprise of every community association, of every labor union, of every church and church society, of every uplift, humanitarian and philanthropic organization in the city, should be drafted into this movement that means so much to Atlanta's future!

There is a vast amount of this sort of work to be done, not so much to convince the people of Atlanta as to the merit of the bonding proposal as to get them to the polls.

That an overwhelming majority of the people of Atlanta are in favor of the bonding proposal there is little room for doubt; but the main difficulty will be in getting the vote out.

To do that will require organization, organization!

And it calls for untiring, incessant, intelligently directed work, work, work, between now and election day—for the time is short!

HOME-BUILDING THRIFT.

Thriff that helps to homeownership is the kind that counts for most.

And well-directed thrift work inevitably leads in that direction.

The thrift sermons of Thrift week all included the home-ownership moral, for the reason, as pointed out by The New York Evening Mail, that—

"Whoever owns his own home feels a measure of independence and self-respect that others less blessed do not ordinarily enjoy. His house is genuinely his 'castle,' and when he is in it, and close to the door of its privacy against the outer world, he has a resting place and personal domain that cannot be valued in mere money."

"Championship begins at the hearthstone. Community spirit is founded upon home ownerships. The richest family associations, the joys of childhood and sanctity of old age spring only from the traditional privilege of living under one's own vine and root tree."

In all thrift-planning something should be "put by" toward making the dream of a home "come true," and that is what is done by the provident worker who looks beyond the present.

Any number of young men—and girls who work for their living either own their own homes, or are well on the way to become home-owners.

It is the goal of which the wise ones never lose sight; and, once attained, it is an all-around reward for the work that made it possible.

And when one comes to think it over—to balance the life-books—it is happiness purchased at small price.

There is more home-building going on now here, as elsewhere, and it follows naturally that there will be more home-owners.

Keep up the thrift work for home's sake.

ATLANTA'S GUESTS.

Atlanta is honored by the presence of many distinguished visitors, the most notable of whom is the vice president-elect of the United States, former governor Calvin Coolidge, of Massachusetts.

In order to make Governor Coolidge feel perfectly at home, we have been given a variation of our accustomed sunny weather and given a typical New England salutation.

But though the weather may be inclement, he and the others of our guests may rest assured that the hearts and homes of the people of Atlanta are warm, and that we are glad to see them and to welcome them.

While the object of this conference is to further the cause of a high tariff, the welcome to those attending it is by no means confined to those who agree with the policy of protection.

The whole of Atlanta, free traders, those who favor a moderate tariff, those who advocate tariff for revenue only and those who stand pat on a proposition of protection for protection's sake—and all of those types are represented in Atlanta—all join in extending a genuine southern greeting to our visitors.

The latchingstring of Atlanta is on the outside!

If anybody wants anything, all he has to do is to ask for it—and he will not have to do even that if his wishes can be anticipated!

One of the most significant features of the conference is that it indicates that the time has come when the south, like every other section of the country, is to consider and discuss great economic problems on their merit.

Conditions for many years have been such that the south has not enjoyed this privilege to the same degree as other sections.

If this conference means that discussion is to lead ultimately to division along economic lines, there is no occasion for either apprehension or regret on that account.

Whenever the day comes that the south, like every other section, can cast its vote on real issues at stake, and when all parties appealing for the southern vote must either sink or swim upon the issues involved, unclouded by prejudice or by misleading bogies, then the south will be in just that much better position to take, its part in the solution of the great national problems of the day.

BETTER TO BURN IT.

The Bostonian society has announced with a show of pride that it has just come into possession of the cane with which Congressman Preston S. Brooks assaulted Senator Charles S. Sumner, May 22, 1856, and will preserve and exhibit it among the organization's precious historic relics.

Better to burn it!

The assault occurred in the senate chamber following the adjournment of one of the hectic sessions common to that day and time. It is said that Sumner never fully recovered from the attack.

The cane is described as being "of a black substance, resembling ebony or gutta percha," and it is about two-thirds of its original length, it having been broken over the senator's head.

It should not be placed on exhibition, because the reminder is certainly not elevating.

There are so many good deeds of the past to commemorate—so many historic actions that were noble and inspiring—for the American people to commemorate by printed word and by implements that were associated with them that it seems a pity for our historical organizations to clutter their exhibit cases with relics calculated to keep green the memory of deeds that had best be forgotten.

But if the office-seekers are financially able to follow Harding to Florida, what do they want with a little old job?

It is said that a directory of "Best Minds in the Country" will not be undertaken by the Harding Publishing company.

Senator Harding has the proverbial patience of a fisherman, but it can't match the persistence of the hopeful office-seeker.

Under the story of the alleged death of Lenin, we read: "Conditions in Russia are improving."

Fourteen persons, eleven of whom were passengers, were killed in a railway wreck near here today. Many others were injured. The wrecks occurred when the coast express collided with a train from Montgomery.

John Herbert Vane-Tempest, brother of the Marquis of Londesborough, one of those injured, died soon after the collision, bringing the death list to fifteen.

Roanoke, W. Va., January 28.—What Virginian railway officials claim is a record for tonnage hauled by one locomotive was established last night, when McNeil engine 711 hauled eight 130-ton steel gondolas loaded with coal from Victoria to Roanoke. The gross tonnage of the cars was 12,400, and net coal load 9,300 tons.

The run of 130 miles was made in nine hours and forty minutes, with four stops to take on the 40,000 gallons of water consumed in providing the motive power.

Just From Georgia

By FRANK L. STANTON.

Trouble in the Elements.

Sunshine to de Rain an' Sleet: "You think you'll have yo' way." But I'm do one what's har ter beat. Dis is my drinkin' day! An' I'll drink you like You wuz in de road.

I'm de thirsty one What'll drin you up?" Den de Rain an' Sleet, dey up an' sal'd:

"Des wait a li'l while; We'll make you hide yo shiny head An' cry lak' a cryin' chile!"

But Sunshine said: "Fill de big worl'-cup." An' you des watch How I'll drink you up!"

Home-Town Sentiments.

To be really popular you must allow people to tell you things that you already know, as if you had never heard of them—Dearborn Independent.

In order to make Governor Coolidge feel perfectly at home, we have been given a variation of our accustomed sunny weather and given a typical New England salutation.

We are perfectly willing to admit that science is a great thing but wonder why it has never explained the reason a rooster does all the crowing while it's the hen that lays the egg!—Chula News.

It's a long time between drinks for those who may be lying in the cemetery as the result of poisoned liquor, and the fellow who poisons it ought to have to carry them the next drink—Calhoun County Courier.

Let us hope Mr. Harding will be successful with the fish he hooks in Florida waters than he's been having with cabinet possibilities. The big ones seem to have been getting away thus far—Albany Herald.

His Dark Time Song.

Dark time, dark time, Long till day.

An' de Night Win' cryin' Kaze he los' his way!

He cry mo' lonesome Than you ever known,

An' I ain't gwinter rise Fer ter show him de road!

Dark time, dark time!

Lord, tell de Night Ter roll up de blanket What turner de Light!

Hitting Back.

"Gilbert K. Chesterton" is ripping our country up the back because he can't get "Heller," says Colonel George Bailey, who adds: "Then there are critics and others who are preparing to rip Gilbert up the back because he didn't bring some with him."

No Matter.

No matter if it's sleet an' snow,

Pull yerself together!

The weather man himself, you know,

Wouldn't bet on weather.

Might's well sing, with one accord:

"Be it as they may make it—

Just any kind o' weather, Lord,

So we are here to take it!"

Telling It to Em.

This is from the Peabody Gazette, what The Kansas City Star calls "A scientific medical and personal item":

"In a brainstorm last week in a certain part of Peabody, three transmission lines from the cream-brush to the base of the tongue went down and considerable loose talk followed."

Today's Talk

BY GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS.

(Copyright, 1921, by The Constitution.)

ON GROWING RICH.

I know a man with whom you can converse in no terms excepting those of money. He thinks, breathes and I was going to say, smokes money for food. But of course that is putting it somewhat.

In spite of this fact, I do not believe that he will ever be a rich man. Because, according to the simple law of supply and demand, one has to give quite a considerable sum for what he does not want.

A veritable plague of reporters has descended upon him. He was being grilled about everything he was doing.

Finally my turn came and when he said: "What do you wish to ask me?" that awe of the British came over me. I managed to say: "How do you like our city?" It was so bromidic that he did not even answer. He was asked whether he had ever heard the one about Bryan and the Hebrew peddler.

But the Englishman unconsciously, I believe, gives forth an air of Hauter that is quite disarming. Once I lived in the same hotel with Lawrence O'Donnell, who is the typical English type. The waiter, who was tenacious and contemptuous, was a British something or other. I was preparing him by his first name and inquired whether he was or not. He had heard the one about Bryan and the Hebrew peddler.

He stroked his mustache lovingly and said: "A bit of a bouter?" All of which leads up to a visit I paid Gilbert K. Chesterton, the English novelist, at his hotel the other day. A veritable plague of reporters had descended upon him. He was being grilled about everything he was doing.

Finally my turn came and when he said: "What do you wish to ask me?" that awe of the British came over me. I managed to say: "How do you like our city?" It was so bromidic that he did not even answer. He was asked whether he had ever heard the one about Bryan and the Hebrew peddler.

What I really wanted to ask him was how he trained his hair to look so literary. It flows about over rich.

Fill your heart with the love of beautiful things. Keep the windows of your mind wide open. Sina knowledge, but have dozens of doors to the place where you put your feet. Any place may come and be granted a part of the wealth which was given to you in the first place by others.

Then you will keep growing rich!

REVIEW OF GEORGIA METHODIST SCHOOL WORK IS PLANNED

Alumni of a number of Methodist educational institutions in the state will meet at 7:30 o'clock Thursday evening in the Wesley Memorial church. A talk upon the work of the various Methodist schools, accompanied by an illustrative motion picture, will be made by Dr. J. E. Dickey, conference education secretary. Dr. Dickey was formerly pastor of the First Methodist church of Atlanta. His recommendations have been accepted.

Bernhardt set out in his petition that on January 1, 1920, the union made a demand on him to discharge certain of his workmen because they were not affiliated with the organization.

When this was refused

he struck his shop.

A temporary injunction restraining officers and members of the bricklayers' union from interfering with workmen in his employ, was obtained yesterday by Charles W. Bernhardt, building contractor. The order was issued by Judge Ellis.

Bernhardt set out in his petition that on January 1, 1920, the union made a demand on him to discharge certain of his workmen because they were not affiliated with the organization.

URGE RESUMPTION OF RUSSIAN TRADE

Organized Workers Charge State Department Is Maintaining Virtual Stockade Against Soviet.

Washington, January 26.—Argumens for and against resumption of trade with Russia were received today by the Senate foreign relations committee, which also heard charges that the state department actually was maintaining a blockade against that country, although technically none was supposed to exist.

Spokesmen for organized workers in many lines of industry appeared to support the resolution of Senator France, republican, Maryland, which would enable American firms to accept gold of the old imperial Russian government, which is being offered by the soviet authorities in payment for foreign goods. They said resumption of trade would go a long way toward relieving the present industrial depression which has thrown more than three million persons out of employment.

John Spargo, of New York, who has written extensively on Russian conditions, expressed the opposite opinion. In a formal statement which was admitted to the record, he declared that renewal of trade "might easily prove the means of bringing about the collapse of our entire economic system" as vast credits would have to be extended to carry on all forms.

Declaring that Lenin and Trotsky monopolized Russian trade, Senator Brandege, republican, Connecticut, asked how it would be possible to work out plans for trade with Russia without dealing with them. Senator France replied that British statesmen have worked out a plan for the possession of the whole of "Russian trade," and that he believed American statesmen have ability equal to that of the British.

Information as to the means employed by other nations to trade with Russia was given to the committee in executive session by a Russian in business in Boston, who was presented to the committee by Senator France and whose name was withheld. He was said to have told the committee that this system involved the shipping of goods through countries contiguous to Russia. Upon arrival of the shipments, soviet agents were not allowed after examining and paying for the goods in gold, they were shipped to their destinations in Russia.

Georgia Tech School Of Commerce Begins Second Term Monday

The evening classes of Georgia Tech's School of Commerce, which is to Tech what the Wharton School of Finance is to the University of Pennsylvania, will begin its second term of the winter on Monday evening, February 7. All those who desire to register for the term are requested to make arrangements as early as possible.

Dean J. M. Watters will be at the office of the school, which is located on Peachtree avenue, every evening between the hours of 6:30 and 8:30 o'clock to enroll prospective students. He can be reached during the day at his office at Tech by calling Ivy 1827.

The following classes are maintained:

The theory and practice of accounting, auditing, cost accounting, income tax returns, C. P. A. problems, commercial law, sales and office management, insurance, international Spanish, foreign trade, corporation finance, commercial research, marketing methods and the theories of advertising, and in advertising: business English, salesmanship and advertising.

For the new term there will be a number of new courses organized.

Among these are classes in the law of real estate, laws of negotiable instruments and partnership, and the study of the income tax.

SAMUEL S. BATY PAYS ATLANTA SHORT VISIT

Samuel S. Baty, supreme secretary of the Fraternal Aid Union of Lawrence, Kan., after a short visit in Lawrence, Kan., before coming here on account of the serious illness of Dr. V. A. Young, who is supreme president of the Fraternal Aid Union. Mr. Baty, who was one of the founders of this organization, and who has been supreme secretary since 1896, was entertained while in this city by Edwin Laser, the southern representative, and Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Gillett, supreme representative.

After being informed that a movement is foot to secure for Atlanta the World Fair exposition in 1925, which is the year for the regular convention of the Fraternal Union, he said: "Mr. Laser, and there would be no difficulty to Atlanta securing the convention for that year."

Headquarters for Wedding Gifts

Sterling silver is the family's best gift to the bride.

In our stock and catalogue we show a wonderful assortment of articles especially suitable for wedding gifts—gifts of enduring charm and value.

Nowhere are there gifts more delightfully sensible—and treasured. Give "Gifts that Last"—gifts that are lifelong testimonials of the spirit they so exquisitely commemorate.

Write for twenty-sixth annual catalogue.

Mail orders shipped prepaid.

Maior & Berkele, Inc.
Gold and Silversmiths
31 Whitehall Street
Established 1887

Humane Society Launches Drive To Raise $10,000

Indorsed by the Georgia Federation of Women's Clubs and included in its membership Governor Hugh M. Dorsey and the leading men and women of Atlanta, the Atlanta Humane Society Wednesday launched a campaign to raise $10,000 with which to relieve suffering wherever it may be found.

Contributions will be handled by W. H. Parker, vice-president and trust officer of the Fourth National bank, who is treasurer of the society and all subscriptions will be made in the office of the Society, 605 Chamber of Commerce building. Telephone Ivy 7424.

In charge of the campaign is Mrs. Lillian G. Smith, executive secretary, who was formerly general secretary of the Georgia Chamber of Commerce, and during the war was driving manager of the War Loan Organization for the Sixth Federal Reserve district.

Since its inception the Atlanta Humane Society, supplied with only the most meager funds, has struggled forward, seeking at all times to relieve suffering and promote humanitarian work, the purpose of which is to help the helpless.

Now, the appeal is made to Atlanta and to Georgia to contribute to a fund which will put the society upon a sound financial basis and help in its program of humanitarian work, the purpose of which is to help the helpless.

At the meeting of the Georgia Federation of Women's Club last year, the society was indorsed unanimously, and the convention that year, that membership in the clubs join the society in a body.

Today the society includes in its membership, public officials, among leading business and professional men, and the most prominent women of Atlanta. It is affiliated with the National Humane Society and the National Humane Educational association, but it receives no funds from either. It co-operates with the Society for Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, but the two organizations are distinct.

The purpose of the Atlanta Humane Society is to protect helpless children, old and sick people, prison inmates, dumb brutes.

Its motto is "No animal shall be treated with cruelty.

The society went to their aid and brought about the prosecution of O. T. Craig, a planter, and his daughter, Mrs. O. Williamson, who were shot to death at the Craig plantation home near Wilson, Ark., Christmas day, last.

Sometimes it has instituted criminal proceedings, sometimes warnings have been sufficient.

An animal which had been captured was protection furnished by its father; a child cruelly treated by its father; a woman deserted by her son; a wife.

Through the efforts of the society the fact was disclosed a year ago that children at a private orphanage were being starved and that they were treated with greatest cruelty.

The society went to their aid and brought about the prosecution of O. T. Craig, a planter, and his daughter, Mrs. O. Williamson, who were shot to death at the Craig plantation home near Wilson, Ark., Christmas day, last.

Sometimes it has instituted criminal proceedings, sometimes warnings have been sufficient.

An animal which had been captured was protection furnished by its father; a child cruelly treated by its father; a woman deserted by her son; a wife.

Through the efforts of the society the fact was disclosed a year ago that children at a private orphanage were being starved and that they were treated with greatest cruelty.

The society went to their aid and brought about the prosecution of O. T. Craig, a planter, and his daughter, Mrs. O. Williamson, who were shot to death at the Craig plantation home near Wilson, Ark., Christmas day, last.

Sometimes it has instituted criminal proceedings, sometimes warnings have been sufficient.

An animal which had been captured was protection furnished by its father; a child cruelly treated by its father; a woman deserted by her son; a wife.

Through the efforts of the society the fact was disclosed a year ago that children at a private orphanage were being starved and that they were treated with greatest cruelty.

The society went to their aid and brought about the prosecution of O. T. Craig, a planter, and his daughter, Mrs. O. Williamson, who were shot to death at the Craig plantation home near Wilson, Ark., Christmas day, last.

Sometimes it has instituted criminal proceedings, sometimes warnings have been sufficient.

An animal which had been captured was protection furnished by its father; a child cruelly treated by its father; a woman deserted by her son; a wife.

Through the efforts of the society the fact was disclosed a year ago that children at a private orphanage were being starved and that they were treated with greatest cruelty.

The society went to their aid and brought about the prosecution of O. T. Craig, a planter, and his daughter, Mrs. O. Williamson, who were shot to death at the Craig plantation home near Wilson, Ark., Christmas day, last.

Sometimes it has instituted criminal proceedings, sometimes warnings have been sufficient.

An animal which had been captured was protection furnished by its father; a child cruelly treated by its father; a woman deserted by her son; a wife.

Through the efforts of the society the fact was disclosed a year ago that children at a private orphanage were being starved and that they were treated with greatest cruelty.

The society went to their aid and brought about the prosecution of O. T. Craig, a planter, and his daughter, Mrs. O. Williamson, who were shot to death at the Craig plantation home near Wilson, Ark., Christmas day, last.

Sometimes it has instituted criminal proceedings, sometimes warnings have been sufficient.

An animal which had been captured was protection furnished by its father; a child cruelly treated by its father; a woman deserted by her son; a wife.

Through the efforts of the society the fact was disclosed a year ago that children at a private orphanage were being starved and that they were treated with greatest cruelty.

The society went to their aid and brought about the prosecution of O. T. Craig, a planter, and his daughter, Mrs. O. Williamson, who were shot to death at the Craig plantation home near Wilson, Ark., Christmas day, last.

Sometimes it has instituted criminal proceedings, sometimes warnings have been sufficient.

An animal which had been captured was protection furnished by its father; a child cruelly treated by its father; a woman deserted by her son; a wife.

Through the efforts of the society the fact was disclosed a year ago that children at a private orphanage were being starved and that they were treated with greatest cruelty.

The society went to their aid and brought about the prosecution of O. T. Craig, a planter, and his daughter, Mrs. O. Williamson, who were shot to death at the Craig plantation home near Wilson, Ark., Christmas day, last.

Sometimes it has instituted criminal proceedings, sometimes warnings have been sufficient.

An animal which had been captured was protection furnished by its father; a child cruelly treated by its father; a woman deserted by her son; a wife.

Through the efforts of the society the fact was disclosed a year ago that children at a private orphanage were being starved and that they were treated with greatest cruelty.

The society went to their aid and brought about the prosecution of O. T. Craig, a planter, and his daughter, Mrs. O. Williamson, who were shot to death at the Craig plantation home near Wilson, Ark., Christmas day, last.

Sometimes it has instituted criminal proceedings, sometimes warnings have been sufficient.

An animal which had been captured was protection furnished by its father; a child cruelly treated by its father; a woman deserted by her son; a wife.

Through the efforts of the society the fact was disclosed a year ago that children at a private orphanage were being starved and that they were treated with greatest cruelty.

The society went to their aid and brought about the prosecution of O. T. Craig, a planter, and his daughter, Mrs. O. Williamson, who were shot to death at the Craig plantation home near Wilson, Ark., Christmas day, last.

Sometimes it has instituted criminal proceedings, sometimes warnings have been sufficient.

An animal which had been captured was protection furnished by its father; a child cruelly treated by its father; a woman deserted by her son; a wife.

Through the efforts of the society the fact was disclosed a year ago that children at a private orphanage were being starved and that they were treated with greatest cruelty.

The society went to their aid and brought about the prosecution of O. T. Craig, a planter, and his daughter, Mrs. O. Williamson, who were shot to death at the Craig plantation home near Wilson, Ark., Christmas day, last.

Sometimes it has instituted criminal proceedings, sometimes warnings have been sufficient.

An animal which had been captured was protection furnished by its father; a child cruelly treated by its father; a woman deserted by her son; a wife.

Through the efforts of the society the fact was disclosed a year ago that children at a private orphanage were being starved and that they were treated with greatest cruelty.

The society went to their aid and brought about the prosecution of O. T. Craig, a planter, and his daughter, Mrs. O. Williamson, who were shot to death at the Craig plantation home near Wilson, Ark., Christmas day, last.

Sometimes it has instituted criminal proceedings, sometimes warnings have been sufficient.

An animal which had been captured was protection furnished by its father; a child cruelly treated by its father; a woman deserted by her son; a wife.

Through the efforts of the society the fact was disclosed a year ago that children at a private orphanage were being starved and that they were treated with greatest cruelty.

The society went to their aid and brought about the prosecution of O. T. Craig, a planter, and his daughter, Mrs. O. Williamson, who were shot to death at the Craig plantation home near Wilson, Ark., Christmas day, last.

Sometimes it has instituted criminal proceedings, sometimes warnings have been sufficient.

An animal which had been captured was protection furnished by its father; a child cruelly treated by its father; a woman deserted by her son; a wife.

Through the efforts of the society the fact was disclosed a year ago that children at a private orphanage were being starved and that they were treated with greatest cruelty.

The society went to their aid and brought about the prosecution of O. T. Craig, a planter, and his daughter, Mrs. O. Williamson, who were shot to death at the Craig plantation home near Wilson, Ark., Christmas day, last.

Sometimes it has instituted criminal proceedings, sometimes warnings have been sufficient.

An animal which had been captured was protection furnished by its father; a child cruelly treated by its father; a woman deserted by her son; a wife.

Through the efforts of the society the fact was disclosed a year ago that children at a private orphanage were being starved and that they were treated with greatest cruelty.

The society went to their aid and brought about the prosecution of O. T. Craig, a planter, and his daughter, Mrs. O. Williamson, who were shot to death at the Craig plantation home near Wilson, Ark., Christmas day, last.

Sometimes it has instituted criminal proceedings, sometimes warnings have been sufficient.

An animal which had been captured was protection furnished by its father; a child cruelly treated by its father; a woman deserted by her son; a wife.

Through the efforts of the society the fact was disclosed a year ago that children at a private orphanage were being starved and that they were treated with greatest cruelty.

The society went to their aid and brought about the prosecution of O. T. Craig, a planter, and his daughter, Mrs. O. Williamson, who were shot to death at the Craig plantation home near Wilson, Ark., Christmas day, last.

Sometimes it has instituted criminal proceedings, sometimes warnings have been sufficient.

An animal which had been captured was protection furnished by its father; a child cruelly treated by its father; a woman deserted by her son; a wife.

Through the efforts of the society the fact was disclosed a year ago that children at a private orphanage were being starved and that they were treated with greatest cruelty.

The society went to their aid and brought about the prosecution of O. T. Craig, a planter, and his daughter, Mrs. O. Williamson, who were shot to death at the Craig plantation home near Wilson, Ark., Christmas day, last.

Sometimes it has instituted criminal proceedings, sometimes warnings have been sufficient.

An animal which had been captured was protection furnished by its father; a child cruelly treated by its father; a woman deserted by her son; a wife.

Through the efforts of the society the fact was disclosed a year ago that children at a private orphanage were being starved and that they were treated with greatest cruelty.

Former Champ Learned Lesson BY FUZZY WOODRUFF Will Be in Great Condition

Jess Willard may not have been the greatest champion ever to draw on a boxing glove, but he has started about regaining his lost laurels in a fashion that not only arouses interest in his scheduled scrap with Jack Dempsey on March 17, but will do a lot toward making him the object of popular will when he faces the Utah Mauler.

In an authorized interview, Willard declares that he is going to spare no expense in preparing for the battle. His plan is to put out a lot of money for expert trainers, for an elaborate training camp, and for a staff of sparring partners that will take care of his trim when he faces the man who dethroned him on July 4, 1919.

Willard undoubtedly learned valuable lessons during his fleeting moments in which he was battered to pieces by Dempsey. In the first place, he was forced to realize that Dempsey's ability had overestimated his own ability in no less a decree. He was further brought to the realization that he was not, as a cow puncher and probably as a pugilist, he knew little or nothing of training systems, and that his attempt to take a short cut to success was a pitiful failure. And he doubtless, too, had a flittering thought that he would be able to find sparring partners from his camp, Walter Monahan and Larry Hembel, who were his friends and good cronies, but not fast enough to have him in anything like the boxing form to meet the man killer from Salt Lake.

Donest's Want Dough.
But that isn't the remarkable part of the authorized interview that Jess gave out. He avers that he cared little or nothing for the price of the fight, or for the privilege of meeting Dempsey again. He doesn't care about admission prices being boosted. He doesn't care about the coming of the breathless readers. Tomorrow we will start a guessing contest on "botonically."

My Daily Scrap
With Wheatley.

"Now let's drop Brennan (he won't have anybody left before me, and it goes to Jake (pick him up, as we were), who has the same standing against Brennan as Bailey. Now it's four times against you times (Brennan's superior, or about 9 1/2 points a better fighter). (Quod erat demonstrandum.)" "Now let's drop Brennan (automatically) for the time being and go toward Brennan and Bailey (both bears beware)."

Down Goes Brennan.

"Now let's drop Brennan (he won't have anybody left before me, and it goes to Jake (pick him up, as we were), who has the same standing against Brennan as Bailey. Now it's four times against you times (Brennan's superior, or about 9 1/2 points a better fighter). (Quod erat demonstrandum.)" "Now let's drop Brennan (automatically) for the time being and go toward Brennan and Bailey (both bears beware)."

After Mr. Flournoy's feulism, the whole thing is unquestionably botonically. The coming of the breathless readers. Tomorrow we will start a guessing contest on "botonically."

And there's strong likelihood that he isn't fooling. In the first place, Willard is plentifully endowed with the goods of this world. In the second place, he realizes the tremendous earning capacity of a champion. If he can't be a hero, he loves he can retrieve his prize earnings on the chance of a champion. And the prospect of a predator pugilism it is refusing to find a pugilist who will even say that he isn't out for the dollar sign. At least, that's what most mean it, but like the rattle of ice water on the morning after, it sounds good.

Pal Flournoy

Is in Again.

Pal Flournoy, who leaped into the ring last week with the dramatic announcement that he was through with pugilism forever and a day, and who unblushingly admitted that he was a pugilist, was allowed to keep his title. At first blush, we were inclined to think that Mr. Flournoy had turned poetical and was redressing himself to the charge of having been given a shell to be allowed to judge for yourself. This is the way that Mr. Flournoy says it with flowers:

"I am not of fact, I wouldn't care to argue such matters as are in my possession on the chances of the Kansas giant against the Utah monster, but I am a poet, and I am sure that there isn't to be sneezed at when no squares off against his conqueror."

Or, rather, the thing isn't done, or rather isn't done often, the thing of a prize fighter coming back and licking the man who defeated him.

And Willard, despite his age, is still able to deliver a knockout. He needn't let anyone doubt that an 80-year-old man who weighs 210 in condition can put the finishing touches to a bull or Dempsey or anyone, nearly anything short of an Hugh Fullerton did to baseballs, as Hugh Fullerton did to baseballs.

In addition to this, the esteemed Mr. Flournoy has invented a brand new sport called "botonically." At first blush, we were inclined to think that Mr. Flournoy had turned poetical and was redressing himself to the charge of having been given a shell to be allowed to judge for yourself. This is the way that Mr. Flournoy says it with flowers:

"Then, beyond doubt, it will be a different Willard from the cocky, impudent, hot-headed Willard of Toledo. He will be more nearly the Willard of Havana. If he is, there will be some lively milling on St. Patrick's day."

Jess Doesn't Desire Money BY MARION KENDRICK Thinks He Has Fine Chance

King Solomon was a wise old man.

So wise was he, his wisdom has never been questioned. And even if he should be, in the days of a wise old man, the mere fact he lived peacefully with a thousand wives would be sufficient rebuttal.

As further conclusive evidence, even though the "hi cost of living those days" was quite unknown in those ancient days, his household didn't know it, and the wise old man and often heard statement: "I haven't a cent to wear." Solomon had too much Jerusalem in him.

On the day and time, however, when the almighty dollar has lost half its value and is more appreciated than ever, King Solomon, like Jess, was not the only one to be surprised.

King Willard, last champion heavyweight prize fighter of the world, starts his training for a return bout with Dempsey with the announcement that men, money has no charm for him.

It is doubtful if Willard has ever been mentioned in the same story with Solomon. It matters not with either of the two—the only Son of Wisdom is now Jess has lost all opportunity of ever being termed as a man of wisdom.

Money is a seducer, even Tex Rickard, described and quoted as follows:

"Willard is in a difficult position, as his sides show when he was asked if he wanted to fight Dempsey. He is very easily swayed by his agent, who is a better fighter than Dempsey."

"The financial terms and conditions do not interest me. I will box on any percentage or other system Tex Rickard desires, and I am quite content to let Dempsey have my money, and the rest, as is his right as champion."

"Ye gods and E pluribus annunti!" said the grand old champion, with a wry remark. What is the nature of this mortal man?

One hundred thousand dollars for the price of being a champion, the nightmares by Jack Dempsey was the sum Willard received not so many months ago. Can it be that Jess cares nothing for the financial end of the coming fight?

It is possible that he is spending a little of his earned money on his training, but merely to snap his fingers at the number of dollars he is being aptly implied by all boxing fans.

GREENVILLE IS BEATEN BY CLEMSON QUINTET

Clemson College, S. C., January 26.—(Special)—The Clemson basketball team defeated the Greenville Y. M. C. A. five here today. The game was a hard-fought one, with both teams giving their best. The result was out, but the Tigers kept well in the lead all of the game.

BASKETBALL TOURNAMENT PLANS GIVEN

BY JOHN MAHONEY.

Atlanta, Ga., January 26.—(Special)—As the basketball season rolls merrily onward, the followers of the court game are turning with ever-increasing interest to the S. L. A. tournament, which is to be held in Atlanta on the following dates: Friday, February 2; Saturday, February 3; Sunday, February 4; and Tuesday, March 1.

This meet will be of prime importance in that it will determine the champion of the S. L. A. championship honors. In previous years, there has been no way to judge the champion on the basis of comparative scores. The tournament this year, as proposed by Coach H. J. Stegemann, chairman of the annual meeting of the S. L. A. in Gainesville, Fla., will decide which team is the best in the conference, and perhaps years, to come.

The committee in charge of the tournament is as follows: H. J. Stegemann, University of Georgia chairman; Coach Bernier, University of Alabama, and Coach W. L. Jackson, Georgia School of Technology. The Atlanta Athletic club will sponsor the tournament, and the important details of the four days, Mr. Doonan was the guiding hand in the national tournament last year.

The committee in charge of the tournament is as follows: H. J. Stegemann, University of Georgia chairman; Coach Bernier, University of Alabama, and Coach W. L. Jackson, Georgia School of Technology. The Atlanta Athletic club will sponsor the tournament, and the important details of the four days, Mr. Doonan was the guiding hand in the national tournament last year.

The committee in charge of the tournament is as follows: H. J. Stegemann, University of Georgia chairman; Coach Bernier, University of Alabama, and Coach W. L. Jackson, Georgia School of Technology. The Atlanta Athletic club will sponsor the tournament, and the important details of the four days, Mr. Doonan was the guiding hand in the national tournament last year.

The committee in charge of the tournament is as follows: H. J. Stegemann, University of Georgia chairman; Coach Bernier, University of Alabama, and Coach W. L. Jackson, Georgia School of Technology. The Atlanta Athletic club will sponsor the tournament, and the important details of the four days, Mr. Doonan was the guiding hand in the national tournament last year.

The committee in charge of the tournament is as follows: H. J. Stegemann, University of Georgia chairman; Coach Bernier, University of Alabama, and Coach W. L. Jackson, Georgia School of Technology. The Atlanta Athletic club will sponsor the tournament, and the important details of the four days, Mr. Doonan was the guiding hand in the national tournament last year.

The committee in charge of the tournament is as follows: H. J. Stegemann, University of Georgia chairman; Coach Bernier, University of Alabama, and Coach W. L. Jackson, Georgia School of Technology. The Atlanta Athletic club will sponsor the tournament, and the important details of the four days, Mr. Doonan was the guiding hand in the national tournament last year.

The committee in charge of the tournament is as follows: H. J. Stegemann, University of Georgia chairman; Coach Bernier, University of Alabama, and Coach W. L. Jackson, Georgia School of Technology. The Atlanta Athletic club will sponsor the tournament, and the important details of the four days, Mr. Doonan was the guiding hand in the national tournament last year.

The committee in charge of the tournament is as follows: H. J. Stegemann, University of Georgia chairman; Coach Bernier, University of Alabama, and Coach W. L. Jackson, Georgia School of Technology. The Atlanta Athletic club will sponsor the tournament, and the important details of the four days, Mr. Doonan was the guiding hand in the national tournament last year.

The committee in charge of the tournament is as follows: H. J. Stegemann, University of Georgia chairman; Coach Bernier, University of Alabama, and Coach W. L. Jackson, Georgia School of Technology. The Atlanta Athletic club will sponsor the tournament, and the important details of the four days, Mr. Doonan was the guiding hand in the national tournament last year.

The committee in charge of the tournament is as follows: H. J. Stegemann, University of Georgia chairman; Coach Bernier, University of Alabama, and Coach W. L. Jackson, Georgia School of Technology. The Atlanta Athletic club will sponsor the tournament, and the important details of the four days, Mr. Doonan was the guiding hand in the national tournament last year.

The committee in charge of the tournament is as follows: H. J. Stegemann, University of Georgia chairman; Coach Bernier, University of Alabama, and Coach W. L. Jackson, Georgia School of Technology. The Atlanta Athletic club will sponsor the tournament, and the important details of the four days, Mr. Doonan was the guiding hand in the national tournament last year.

The committee in charge of the tournament is as follows: H. J. Stegemann, University of Georgia chairman; Coach Bernier, University of Alabama, and Coach W. L. Jackson, Georgia School of Technology. The Atlanta Athletic club will sponsor the tournament, and the important details of the four days, Mr. Doonan was the guiding hand in the national tournament last year.

The committee in charge of the tournament is as follows: H. J. Stegemann, University of Georgia chairman; Coach Bernier, University of Alabama, and Coach W. L. Jackson, Georgia School of Technology. The Atlanta Athletic club will sponsor the tournament, and the important details of the four days, Mr. Doonan was the guiding hand in the national tournament last year.

The committee in charge of the tournament is as follows: H. J. Stegemann, University of Georgia chairman; Coach Bernier, University of Alabama, and Coach W. L. Jackson, Georgia School of Technology. The Atlanta Athletic club will sponsor the tournament, and the important details of the four days, Mr. Doonan was the guiding hand in the national tournament last year.

The committee in charge of the tournament is as follows: H. J. Stegemann, University of Georgia chairman; Coach Bernier, University of Alabama, and Coach W. L. Jackson, Georgia School of Technology. The Atlanta Athletic club will sponsor the tournament, and the important details of the four days, Mr. Doonan was the guiding hand in the national tournament last year.

The committee in charge of the tournament is as follows: H. J. Stegemann, University of Georgia chairman; Coach Bernier, University of Alabama, and Coach W. L. Jackson, Georgia School of Technology. The Atlanta Athletic club will sponsor the tournament, and the important details of the four days, Mr. Doonan was the guiding hand in the national tournament last year.

The committee in charge of the tournament is as follows: H. J. Stegemann, University of Georgia chairman; Coach Bernier, University of Alabama, and Coach W. L. Jackson, Georgia School of Technology. The Atlanta Athletic club will sponsor the tournament, and the important details of the four days, Mr. Doonan was the guiding hand in the national tournament last year.

The committee in charge of the tournament is as follows: H. J. Stegemann, University of Georgia chairman; Coach Bernier, University of Alabama, and Coach W. L. Jackson, Georgia School of Technology. The Atlanta Athletic club will sponsor the tournament, and the important details of the four days, Mr. Doonan was the guiding hand in the national tournament last year.

The committee in charge of the tournament is as follows: H. J. Stegemann, University of Georgia chairman; Coach Bernier, University of Alabama, and Coach W. L. Jackson, Georgia School of Technology. The Atlanta Athletic club will sponsor the tournament, and the important details of the four days, Mr. Doonan was the guiding hand in the national tournament last year.

The committee in charge of the tournament is as follows: H. J. Stegemann, University of Georgia chairman; Coach Bernier, University of Alabama, and Coach W. L. Jackson, Georgia School of Technology. The Atlanta Athletic club will sponsor the tournament, and the important details of the four days, Mr. Doonan was the guiding hand in the national tournament last year.

The committee in charge of the tournament is as follows: H. J. Stegemann, University of Georgia chairman; Coach Bernier, University of Alabama, and Coach W. L. Jackson, Georgia School of Technology. The Atlanta Athletic club will sponsor the tournament, and the important details of the four days, Mr. Doonan was the guiding hand in the national tournament last year.

The committee in charge of the tournament is as follows: H. J. Stegemann, University of Georgia chairman; Coach Bernier, University of Alabama, and Coach W. L. Jackson, Georgia School of Technology. The Atlanta Athletic club will sponsor the tournament, and the important details of the four days, Mr. Doonan was the guiding hand in the national tournament last year.

The committee in charge of the tournament is as follows: H. J. Stegemann, University of Georgia chairman; Coach Bernier, University of Alabama, and Coach W. L. Jackson, Georgia School of Technology. The Atlanta Athletic club will sponsor the tournament, and the important details of the four days, Mr. Doonan was the guiding hand in the national tournament last year.

The committee in charge of the tournament is as follows: H. J. Stegemann, University of Georgia chairman; Coach Bernier, University of Alabama, and Coach W. L. Jackson, Georgia School of Technology. The Atlanta Athletic club will sponsor the tournament, and the important details of the four days, Mr. Doonan was the guiding hand in the national tournament last year.

The committee in charge of the tournament is as follows: H. J. Stegemann, University of Georgia chairman; Coach Bernier, University of Alabama, and Coach W. L. Jackson, Georgia School of Technology. The Atlanta Athletic club will sponsor the tournament, and the important details of the four days, Mr. Doonan was the guiding hand in the national tournament last year.

The committee in charge of the tournament is as follows: H. J. Stegemann, University of Georgia chairman; Coach Bernier, University of Alabama, and Coach W. L. Jackson, Georgia School of Technology. The Atlanta Athletic club will sponsor the tournament, and the important details of the four days, Mr. Doonan was the guiding hand in the national tournament last year.

The committee in charge of the tournament is as follows: H. J. Stegemann, University of Georgia chairman; Coach Bernier, University of Alabama, and Coach W. L. Jackson, Georgia School of Technology. The Atlanta Athletic club will sponsor the tournament, and the important details of the four days, Mr. Doonan was the guiding hand in the national tournament last year.

The committee in charge of the tournament is as follows: H. J. Stegemann, University of Georgia chairman; Coach Bernier, University of Alabama, and Coach W. L. Jackson, Georgia School of Technology. The Atlanta Athletic club will sponsor the tournament, and the important details of the four days, Mr. Doonan was the guiding hand in the national tournament last year.

The committee in charge of the tournament is as follows: H. J. Stegemann, University of Georgia chairman; Coach Bernier, University of Alabama, and Coach W. L. Jackson, Georgia School of Technology. The Atlanta Athletic club will sponsor the tournament, and the important details of the four days, Mr. Doonan was the guiding hand in the national tournament last year.

The committee in charge of the tournament is as follows: H. J. Stegemann, University of Georgia chairman; Coach Bernier, University of Alabama, and Coach W. L. Jackson, Georgia School of Technology. The Atlanta Athletic club will sponsor the tournament, and the important details of the four days, Mr. Doonan was the guiding hand in the national tournament last year.

The committee in charge of the tournament is as follows: H. J. Stegemann, University of Georgia chairman; Coach Bernier, University of Alabama, and Coach W. L. Jackson, Georgia School of Technology. The Atlanta Athletic club will sponsor the tournament, and the important details of the four days, Mr. Doonan was the guiding hand in the national tournament last year.

The committee in charge of the tournament is as follows: H. J. Stegemann, University of Georgia chairman; Coach Bernier, University of Alabama, and Coach W. L. Jackson, Georgia School of Technology. The Atlanta Athletic club will sponsor the tournament, and the important details of the four days, Mr. Doonan was the guiding hand in the national tournament last year.

The committee in charge of the tournament is as follows: H. J. Stegemann, University of Georgia chairman; Coach Bernier, University of Alabama, and Coach W. L. Jackson, Georgia School of Technology. The Atlanta Athletic club will sponsor the tournament, and the important details of the four days, Mr. Doonan was the guiding hand in the national tournament last year.

The committee in charge of the tournament is as follows: H. J. Stegemann, University of Georgia chairman; Coach Bernier, University of Alabama, and Coach W. L. Jackson, Georgia School of Technology. The Atlanta Athletic club will sponsor the tournament, and the important details of the four days, Mr. Doonan was the guiding hand in the national tournament last year.

The committee in charge of the tournament is as follows: H. J. Stegemann, University of Georgia chairman; Coach Bernier, University of Alabama, and Coach W. L. Jackson, Georgia School of Technology. The Atlanta Athletic club will sponsor the tournament, and the important details of the four days, Mr. Doonan was the guiding hand in the national tournament last year.

The committee in charge of the tournament is as follows: H. J. Stegemann, University of Georgia chairman; Coach Bernier, University of Alabama, and Coach W. L. Jackson, Georgia School of Technology. The Atlanta Athletic club will sponsor the tournament, and the important details of the four days, Mr. Doonan was the guiding hand in the national tournament last year.

The committee in charge of the tournament is as follows: H. J. Stegemann, University of Georgia chairman; Coach Bernier, University of Alabama, and Coach W. L. Jackson, Georgia School of Technology. The Atlanta Athletic club will sponsor the tournament, and the important details of the four days, Mr. Doonan was the guiding hand in the national tournament last year.

The committee in charge of the tournament is as follows: H. J. Stegemann, University of Georgia chairman; Coach Bernier, University of Alabama, and Coach W. L. Jackson, Georgia School of Technology. The Atlanta Athletic club will sponsor the tournament, and the important details of the four days, Mr. Doonan was the guiding hand in the national tournament last year.

The committee in charge of the tournament is as follows: H. J. Stegemann, University of Georgia chairman; Coach Bernier, University of Alabama, and Coach W. L. Jackson, Georgia School of Technology. The Atlanta Athletic club will sponsor the tournament, and the important details of the four days, Mr. Doonan was the guiding hand in the national tournament last year.

The committee in charge of the tournament is as follows: H. J. Stegemann, University of Georgia chairman; Coach Bernier, University of

THE CONSTITUTION'S FINANCIAL NEWS AND REVIEWS

Industrial and Railroad Stocks Higher Wednesday

BY R. L. BARNUM

New York, January 26.—Industrial stocks were higher at the opening this morning, with the rails irregular. Then, under the leadership of Union and Southern Pacific, Reading and Northern Pacific, the rails also started up. As the day progressed activity in industrial specialties increased. One of the leaders, General Asphalt, which closed last night at 55% against 64% the day before, 65%, the low for last week, and 40% on January 3, was up to 71% on rumors that Baron Rothschild, now in this country, had made the company an offer of $30,000,000 for its Venezuela oil lands, and that the preferred shares might be recalled at 110, the price fixed, through the proceeds of the recent bond sale. As the Steel corporation learned to its sorrow some fifteen years ago retiring stock with the proceeds of a bond sale is not good financing. That is the objection to the proposition of the Great Northern and Northern Pacific to retire their $215,000,000 maturing bond issue by sale of Burlington bonds. The collateral behind the maturing $215,000,000 maturing bond issue is Burlington stock. Hence, in effect, the proposal now before the interstate commerce commission is to issue fixed interest-bearing mortgage bonds to retire collateral bonds which are no more nor less than stock. That is not good financing, and the commission should not permit it.

Northern Pacific Strong.

Today's marked strength in Northern Pacific was due to stories that important developments were pending in regard to that company's large oil land holdings.

Despite today's strength in the stock market, there was a larger demand for stocks in the loan crowd than at any time since the bear market was in full swing at the end of last year. Every morning at the opening of the stock market, and again just before the closing, there is a gathering on the stock exchange floor of members under a sign reading "loans." This means that members who are carrying long stocks for customers are willing to lend the stocks to traders who want to sell short. Broker A, for example, is carrying on a margin 100 shares of Steel common stock for a customer. Broker B has a customer who wants to sell 100 shares of steel short. B goes to A, borrows the stock, which is selling, say, at $3, and turns over to A a check for $3.00. Then, in a normal market, for the use of the money, A pays to B interest at the prevailing rate, say 6 per cent. If there is a large borrowing demand for the stock the interest rate charged declines. As the short interest grows, payment of interest turns into receipt of a premium. Recently on Crucible there was an overnight charge of $100 on 100 shares, which represented a premium of 1 per cent.

Large Demand in Loan Crowd.

A large borrowing demand for a stock reflects a large short interest. Today there was a large demand in the loan crowd for Mexican Petroleum, Baldwin, Crucible, Bethlehem, St. Blasbaker, Pan-American, General Electric, United Fruit, Sears-Roebuck, American Hide and Leather, preferred, American Agricultural Chemical. From which it must be concluded that professional traders are of the belief that the stock market has discounted all of the good news in sight, and is now about to discount a period of trade reaction in these lines of industry which have not as yet joined in the price-cutting and wage liquidation starting last year.

Demand sterling made a new high record for the year at the opening of the foreign exchange market this morning at $3.82%. This was the highest price touched since early last summer.

Today's Iron Age says that after four weeks of restricted operations, amounting in some cases to almost complete shut-downs, various independent steel companies are starting up on orders that will keep their plants going on a 50 per cent scale for two weeks or more, and that such alteration with idleness is likely to be the rule for the next few months.

Taken at its face value, the statement of earnings just published by the United States Steel corporation for the December quarter is very encouraging. Allowing for the preferred dividend $4.09 a share was earned for the $508,000,000 common stock against only $2.29 for the corresponding three months of 1919. For the full twelve months of 1920 there was a surplus for the common stock equal to $16.71 a share against only $10.10 for 1919.

But if the steel statement is to be used to get a line on existing conditions, and that is why everybody in Wall street is studying it today, it must not be taken at its face value. It is necessary to look beneath the surface. When that is done it is realized first that the statement just given out reflects conditions existing nearly a month ago, and that net earnings for October, November and December show $16,775,000, $15,002,000 and $12,093,000 respectively, or a steady decline. Moreover, while the Steel corporation has been running at 50 per cent of capacity since the turn of the year, it is no secret in trade circles that both export and domestic steel business is very poor, and that the company is running at 90 per cent to clean up orders on books, and thus stave off cancellations. Briefly stated, then, the fact that 16.7 cents a share was earned last year for the common stock against only $10.10 for 1919, reflects past conditions and what Wall street wants to know is about the future.

Bad Outlook in Steel.

Conditions in the steel industry are going to get worse until there has been a readjustment of selling prices. Prices of pig iron and steel billets, the basic products are still three times and more higher than in January of 1919, despite the liquidation that has been going on in other lines of industry. There will be no drastic cuts in the selling prices of steel until wages of steel employees have been reduced. Waves of Steel corporation employees are now 144 per cent higher than in 1919.

That is the key to the whole situation in the steel trade, and it explains why traders are now going short of steel shares on the belief that as usual the stock market will discount actual conditions in the steel trade.

And it appears that from the application just made by the Atlanta, Birmingham and Atlanta to the railway labor wage board for permission to reduce wages, the railroads, like the steel manufacturers, are planning to cut their pay rolls. Under the law the railroads had to maintain wages on the basis fixed by the labor wage board up to September 1, or as long as the government guarantee of net income lasted. There is nothing today in the law to keep the railroads from cutting wages; but the law does provide that if the employees object the matter must be taken before the labor board. Presumably, the Atlanta, Birmingham and Atlanta is going to the labor board first, anticipating such action by employees.

But there is no doubt to the whole matter will end regarding steel, railway and automobile manufacturing wages. Wages are coming down. The department of labor at Washington reports today that there are now 3,473,466 unemployed in the United States. The sooner wages come down the better for all concerned. That has already been proved conclusively in lines of trade such as cotton and wool, where operations have been resumed following price and wage reductions.

Wellborn Predicts Better Times for South's Business

BY MARION KENDRICK

That business has already been greatly impressed; inflated credit reduced and is assuming a stabilized condition, and that the present outlook is favorable and brightening for the south, is the opinion of A. B. Wellborn, governor of the Sixth District Federal Reserve Bank, expressing in his speech with the Constitution, Wednesday last.

In discussing the general business and economic conditions, Mr. Wellborn declared that a general readjustment is already established only for legitimate commercial, industrial and agricultural needs, the south will arrive at a stabilizing and new market condition probably proportionate to the old, but on a higher level.

"The inflated credit condition largely accounts for the nation's world bidding against our government for supplies and equipment necessary to maintain the American army, and the rapid changes during the recent deflation period, though more slowly than the original rise and fall seems to assume now, which is only partially normal times or what we might more fittingly refer to as 'stable' times."

"In this district there has been no contraction of loans nor any contraction of currency in circulation, but on the contrary, both have increased greatly within the past year. The loans of the Atlanta Federal Reserve bank compared to one year ago have increased about 50 per cent, and on December 1 the money in circulation was the highest per capita in the history of the country. The recent fall in prices can not therefore be attributed to contraction, but due to the effect of the general depression to be the largest buyers of the tendency of the public to be more discriminating and economical in their purchases."

The several reserve banks are undoubtedly responsible for the state of stability that exists, a fact fully appreciated by the public.

In his speech Mr. Wellborn, according to notes put in the possession of George N. Roberts, vice president of the National City Bank of New York, and a recognized economist and

NEW YORK STOCK EXCHANGE

EDITED BY W.A.HUGGINS

STOCKS.	Sales.	High.	Low.	Close.	Prev.	Clos.
American Beet Sugar	400	46	45%	45%	45%	45%
American Can	8,000	125%	121%	120%	120%	120%
Amer. Coal & Foundry	1,400	50	46	45%	45%	44
Amer. Hide & Leather, Pfd.	500	46	45%	45%	44	44
American International Corp.	1,200	50	45%	45%	45%	45
American Linseed Co.	8,700	60	58%	58%	58	58
American Smelting & Refining	900	38	37%	37%	37	37
American Sugar	400	51	50%	50%	50	50
American Smelting & Refining	1,800	115	110	110	110	110
American Smelting & Refining	1,000	70	65%	65%	65	65
American Woolen	2,100	50	48	48	48	48
American Copper	1,100	38	35%	35%	35	35
Atlantic Coast Line	2,700	60	57	58%	58	58
Baldwin Locomotive	8,400	115	110	110	110	110
Baltimore & Ohio	14,000	91%	89%	89%	89	89
Bethlehem Steel	2,500	55	54%	54%	54	54
Bethlehem Steel	1,800	115	110	110	110	110
Central Leather	1,400	40%	38%	38%	38	38
Chandler Motors	1,000	70	65%	65%	65	65
Chicago, Mich. & St. Paul	400	28	26%	26%	26	26
Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific	600	26	24	24	24	24
Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific	1,100	25	23%	23%	23	23
Corn Oil	15,000	67%	65%	65%	65	65
Cuba Cane Sugar	2,500	24%	23%	23%	23	23
Erico	1,700	13%	12%	12%	12	12
General Motors	6,500	14%	14%	14%	14	14
Great Northern	2,000	77%	76%	76%	76	76
Hillman Steel	900	91	89	89	89	89
Inspiration Copper	800	35	34%	34%	34	34
J. M. Guggenheim, Pfd.	400	50	48	48	48	48
International Paper	8,100	61%	60%	60%	60	60
Kentucky Coal Co.	1,600	100%	98%	98%	98	98
Mexican Petroleum	25,800	15%	15%	15%	15	15
Miami Copper	400	17	16%	16%	16	16
Middle States Oil	4,000	31%	31	31	31	31
Missouri Pacific	1,500	18%	18%	18%	18	18
Total sales					580,000

FOREIGN EXCHANGE AGAIN ADVANCES

NEW YORK BONDS

U. S. 2% registered, bid	99
U. S. 2%, coupon, bid	99
U. S. 4% coupon, bid	102%
American Smelting & Refining Co.	77%
Am. Smelting & Ref. Co., Pfd.	77%
Atchison Gas	78%
Atlantic Coast Line 1st	19%
Baltimore & Ohio 4%	10%
Bethlehem Steel	85%
Central of Georgia Consolidated Co.	86%
Central of Georgia, Pfd.	86%
Central of Georgia, Oleo Cr.	86%
Chicago, B. & Quincy Joint	97%
Chicago, Mill. & P. Cr. 1st	10%
Chicago, Mill. & P. Cr. 2d	98%
City of Paris	86%
Colorado & Southern ref. 4%	74%
Colorado & Southern, 1st	74%
Corporation of America	81%
Dominion of Canada Co. (1931)	90%
Erie gen. 4%	82%
First Mortg. 1st, pfd.	81
First Mortg. 1st, pfd. 6%	81
First Mortg. 1st, pfd. 8%	81
First Mortg. 1st, pfd. 10%	81
First Mortg. 1st, pfd. 12%	81
First Mortg. 1st, pfd. 14%	81
First Mortg. 1st, pfd. 16%	81
First Mortg. 1st, pfd. 18%	81
First Mortg. 1st, pfd. 20%	81
First Mortg. 1st, pfd. 22%	81
First Mortg. 1st, pfd. 24%	81
First Mortg. 1st, pfd. 26%	81
First Mortg. 1st, pfd. 28%	81
First Mortg. 1st, pfd. 30%	81
First Mortg. 1st, pfd. 32%	81
First Mortg. 1st, pfd. 34%	81
First Mortg. 1st, pfd. 36%	81
First Mortg. 1st, pfd. 38%	81
First Mortg. 1st, pfd. 40%	81
First Mortg. 1st, pfd. 42%	81
First Mortg. 1st, pfd. 44%	81
First Mortg. 1st, pfd. 46%	81
First Mortg. 1st, pfd. 48%	81
First Mortg. 1st, pfd. 50%	81
First Mortg. 1st, pfd. 52%	81
First Mortg. 1st, pfd. 54%	81
First Mortg. 1st, pfd. 56%	81
First Mortg. 1st, pfd. 58%	81
First Mortg. 1st, pfd. 60%	81
First Mortg. 1st, pfd. 62%	81
First Mortg. 1st, pfd. 64%	81
First Mortg. 1st, pfd. 66%	81
First Mortg. 1st, pfd. 68%	81
First Mortg. 1st, pfd. 70%	81
First Mortg. 1st, pfd. 72%	81
First Mortg. 1st, pfd. 74%	81
First Mortg. 1st, pfd. 76%	81
First Mortg. 1st, pfd. 78%	81
First Mortg. 1st, pfd. 80%	81
First Mortg. 1st, pfd. 82%	81
First Mortg. 1st, pfd. 84%	81
First Mortg. 1st, pfd. 86%	81
First Mortg. 1st, pfd. 88%	81
First Mortg. 1st, pfd. 90%	81
First Mortg. 1st, pfd. 92%	81
First Mortg. 1st, pfd. 94%	81
First Mortg. 1st, pfd. 96%	81

East St. Louis, January 26.—Guy Kyle, former rector of the Free Methodist church at Mount Vernon, this afternoon was arraigned before the U. S. Commissioner. Hooker on a charge of stealing mail pouches containing $189,000 at Mount Vernon, January 14. He waived preliminary hearing and was remanded to jail at Mount Vernon. Bail was fixed at $20,000.

$100,000 Fire at Savannah.

Savannah, Ga., January 26.—Damage estimated at $100,000 resulted from fire here early today which destroyed the building of the H. Ness & Co. warehouse, in which the Blum-Dimmitt company, automobile dealers, had thirty cars stored, and a vinegar factory.

THEATERS

LYRIC Today-Friday-Saturday
2:30-7:30-9:15

Big Time Keith Vodvil

MARIA LO

Presents Her

Famous Artistic Creation
"ART STUDIES"
With Living Models De Luxe

Hal Springfield
In
"Feminine Follies"

Rich &
Lenore
Comedy
Couple

Green &
Parker
Blackface
Comedy

Dave Martha
Lane & Whelan
In their hilarious comedy
"MOVING"
Latest Comedies
Topical Tips

CONTINUOUS 1 to 11
LOEW'S GRANDS
AUSTRALIA 33079

THE CLANCY KIDS

Fair Enough.

By PERCY L. CROSBY

Copyright, 1921, by The Atlanta Constitution Company.

Ecuador at the time of the Spanish conquest was a part of the great empire of the Incas.

Amusement Directory THEATERS

TUTOR THEATER—Thursday, Friday, Saturday
ATLANTA THEATER—All week, Douglas MacLean, in "The Rookies Return," and other screen features.

KILDE THEATER—All week, Douglas MacLean, in "The Rookies Return," and other screen features.

LOWE'S GRAND THEATER (Pictures and Vaudeville) — See advertisement for program.

HOWARD THEATER—All week, Wyndham Standing and Mabel Talton, in "Earthbound," and other features.

VANDETTE THEATER—Thursday, "The World and His Wife."

ALAME NO. 2—Thursday, Bert Lytell in "The Price of Redemption."

SAVOY THEATER—Thursday, Mary Miles Miller in "A Cumberland Romance."

ALPHA THEATER—Thursday, Edgar Jones in "The Beloved Brute."

JP IN MABEL'S ROOM
Prices: Nights, 50¢ to $2
Wed. Mat., 50¢ to $1.50
SEATS NOW ON SALE

RECEIVED A MOST CORDIAL WELCOME ON ITS LAST VISIT HERE.

KILDE THEATER—Wednesday.

(At Atlanta's Kilde.)
No attraction during the past ten years has enlisted the widespread attention which is just now being accorded to Geo. M. Cohan's big musical comedy, "Mary," which will continue at the Atlanta theater for the balance of the present week, with a matinee Saturday.

The act is a lyrical comedy, directed by Otto Harbach and Frank Mandel, two leading American writers of this style of entertainment. The music is by Leo Hirsch. What product from such a trio of practiced and adept purveyors of material much may be expected, and for truth, much was received.

Four other splendid acts are on the bill in addition to the latest comedies and the newest of Topical Tip.

Up in Mabel's Room.
(Coming to the Atlanta Theater.)
Oscar Wilden, the famous English poet and playwright, said, "I never have seen 'Up in Mabel's Room,' the beauty farce which comes to the Atlanta theater on Monday night next, for an enjoyment of a night's entertainment you will be convinced that every woman likes to tease and torment the man she likes. 'Up in Mabel's Room' was the biggest farce hit on Broadway last season, and received a most cordial welcome on its last visit here.

LOEW'S AFTERNOONS 15-20
NIGHTS 15-30-40

Sherlock Sisters & Clinton
Program De Luxe
THURSDAY
FRIDAY
SATURDAY
All-Star Show
Delightful Fantasy of Melody and Grace
Robert E. O'Connor & Co., in "2700"
Melville & Stetson (Jrs.) in a Classic Revival
Miss Busse and Her TERRIERS

OWEN MOORE, in "The Poor Simp"
Presenting the Likeliest Star in His Funniest Role.

What Is Life?
What Is Death?

See This Remarkable Drama
Which Bares, as No Other Picture Has Ever Done,

THE PASSION-SWEPT DESTINIES OF A FAITHLESS MAN AND A SEDUCTIVE WOMAN—EVEN INTO THE LIFE BEYOND!

Basil King's Astounding Photodrama

"EARTHBOUND"

An Amazing Motion Picture Achievement

Howard
TODAY AND ALL WEEK

HOWARD CONCERT ORCHESTRA
ENRICO LEIDE, Director.
ANNE JAGO Contralto

PERFORMANCES—

At 1, 3, 5, 7 and 9 P. M.
Performances DE LUXE, with all artists and complete orchestra at 3-7-9 P. M.

Complete Change of Music and Added Attractions Today.

TODAY—Friday and Saturday

Jack Pickford

In the Very Last Picture He Made Before Sailing for Paris

"The Man Who Had Everything"

Also
2-Reel
Comedy and A Brand-New News Weekly

FORSYTH

CAN YOU IMAGINE THE KING OF ENGLAND PLAYING GOLF WITH THE FORMER KAISER OF GERMANY? CAN YOU IMAGINE CHARLES CHARLIN MAKING YOU CRY?

Coming Soon CHARLES CHAPLIN in "The Kid"

ALL DAY SINGS,
LURE OF PINES,
BEGIN SUNDAY

CRITERION

NOW PLAYING
LOUISE GLAUM

IN
"LOVE"
ALSO LARRY SEMON
IN
"The Stagehand"
SCREEN SNAPSHOTS
TOPICS OF THE DAY
CRITERION ORCHESTRA

RILEY

ALL WEEK
DOUGLAS MacLEAN
and DORIS MAY

In Their Latest Paramount

Comedy Drama

"The Rookie's Return"

ADDED ATTRACTION

"The One Best Bet"

New Chester Comedy

Riley Orchestra

Fitzgerald, January 26—(Special)

The "singing season" in this section will open in full blast Sunday, when both Royal and Ben Hill Singing Associations and the Ben Hill Singing Association conduct their first "all day singings" of the year. The Royal association, singing at Mystic, Irwin county, and the Ben Hill association will conduct their first "all day singings" of the year.

Beginning Thursday, there will be a new comedy, a new Howard News and Views, a new overture by the orchestra, "Tippey's Light and airy" marc, a new solo by Miss Anne Jago, "Anne Laurie," and a new organ solo by Edwin Sawtelle Elmer's "Pomp and Circumstance."

Each carrier is required to show the conditions existing on its line and must set forth that particular church with which it deals. It is necessary to have the repair work done outside of its own plant.

Louise Glauum.

(At the Criterion.)

"Love" acclaimed one of the year's most elevating screen-dramas is the principal attraction at the Criterion theater this week with Louise Glauum in the lead. Critics who have viewed this J. Parker Read, Jr. production prior to its general release say it is Love's best effort to date. The story is from a scenario by Louis Joseph Vance, the famous American novelist, especially fitted for Miss Glauum whose screen writing is becoming larger and more enthusiastic with each new success under the direction of Mr. Read.

Earthbound.

(At the Howard.)

Atlanta who decide that they want to see "Earthbound" more than once will be pleased to know that the Howard will change its program throughout for the last three days of the week, except for the "Earthbound" picture.

Beginning Thursday, there will be a new comedy, a new Howard

News and Views, a new overture by the orchestra, "Tippey's Light and airy" marc, a new solo by Miss Anne Jago, "Anne Laurie," and a new organ solo by Edwin Sawtelle Elmer's "Pomp and Circumstance."

The number of freight and passenger cars repaired or constructed during the month of January totalled 1,000, and the total value of materials purchased and actual cost figures, not only of materials furnished but of cost of installation, amounted to $1,000,000.

The machinists organization allege ran the repair and equipment bills up to unreasonable amounts and demanded payment.

Each carrier is required to show

the conditions existing on its line

and must set forth that particular

church with which it deals.

Each carrier is required to show

the conditions existing on its line

and must set forth that particular

church with which it deals.

Each carrier is required to show

the conditions existing on its line

and must set forth that particular

church with which it deals.

Each carrier is required to show

the conditions existing on its line

and must set forth that particular

church with which it deals.

Each carrier is required to show

the conditions existing on its line

and must set forth that particular

church with which it deals.

Each carrier is required to show

the conditions existing on its line

and must set forth that particular

church with which it deals.

Each carrier is required to show

the conditions existing on its line

and must set forth that particular

church with which it deals.

Each carrier is required to show

the conditions existing on its line

and must set forth that particular

church with which it deals.

Each carrier is required to show

the conditions existing on its line

and must set forth that particular

church with which it deals.

Each carrier is required to show

the conditions existing on its line

and must set forth that particular

church with which it deals.

Each carrier is required to show

the conditions existing on its line

and must set forth that particular

church with which it deals.

Each carrier is required to show

the conditions existing on its line

and must set forth that particular

church with which it deals.

Each carrier is required to show

the conditions existing on its line

and must set forth that particular

THE GUMPS—BE THAT AS IT MAY

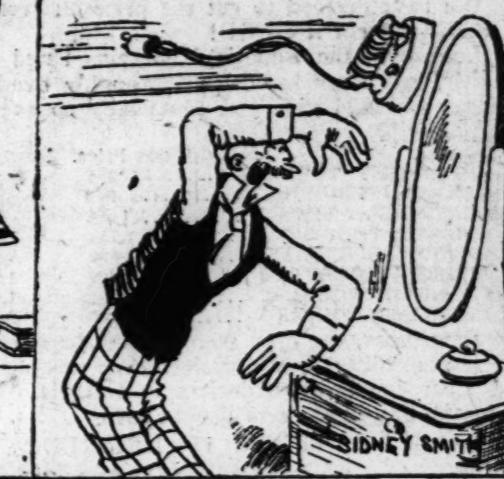

THE WIDOW
ZANDER IS STILL SHOOTING
PARTS OF FLATTERING INTO THE GULLIBLE
UNCLE BIM—

POOR MIN-POOR CHESTER
POOR ANDY—

WELL WOMEN AREN'T
SO BAD AT THAT MIN—
I JUST HEARD OF A WOMAN WHO DIDN'T SAY A CROSS
OR AN UNKIND WORD TO HER HUSBAND FOR 11 MONTHS—

WELL SHE MUST HAVE PUT UP WITH A LOT—

NO SHE WAS AWAY FOR ELEVEN MONTHS VISITING IN CUBA—

COLDS THAT DEVELOP INTO PNEUMONIA

Chronic Coughs and Persistent Colds Lead to Serious Lung Trouble. You Can Stop Them Now With Creosote, an Emulsified Creosote That Is Pleasant to Take.

A New Medical Discovery With Two-fold Action. Soothes and Heals the Inflamed Surface and Kills the Germ. Endorsed by Highest Authorities.

Money Refunded if Any Cough or Cold, No Matter of How Long Standing, Is Not Relieved After Taking According to Directions.

FINE FOR BUILDING UP THE SYSTEM AFTER COLDS OR THE FLU.

Of all known drugs, Creosote is recognized by the medical fraternity as the greatest healing agency for the treatment of chronic coughs and colds and other forms of throat and lung trouble. Creosote contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membranes of the respiratory tract and inflammation while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of infection and cures the germs that lead to consumption.

Creosote is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of chronic coughs and colds and other forms of throat and lung diseases and is excellent for building up the system after colds or the flu. Instructions: Take a half-teaspoonful and swallow. Ask your druggist, "Adv. M.W."

LEOPARD CANNOT CHANGE SPOTS

Mr. Dodson, the "Liver Tone" Man, Tells the Treachery of Calomel.

Calomel loses you a day! You know what calomel is. It's mercury; quicksilver. Calomel is dangerous. It causes intestinal irritation, dysentery, cramping and sickening you. Calomel attacks the bones and should never be put into your system.

When you feel bilious, sluggish, constipated and all knocked out and believe you need a dose of dangerous calomel, don't buy it. Your druggist sells for a few cents a large bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone, which is entirely vegetable. It is pleasant to take and a perfect substitute for calomel. It is guaranteed to start your liver without stirring you up inside, and can't give you a headache.

Don't take calomel! It cannot be trusted any more than a leopard or a wildcat. Take Dodson's Liver Tone, which is gentle and won't stir you up and makes you feel fine. Give it to the children because it is perfectly harmless and doesn't grippe (adv.).

Sealed proposals for constructing a 10-story office and plant, 250x100 feet, will be received and published at 11 a.m., March 1st, 1921, at the office of the Atlanta Board of Public Works, 1106 Candler Bldg. A deposit of $10.00 will be required for plans and specifications.

COLDS-CROUP-PNEUMONIA
Camthol
SALVE
WHOOPING COUGH AND BURNS

At Drug Stores 30 cents

Tropical Cruises

Cuba—Jamaica—Panama
"Arabian Nights Africa," Europe,
China, Japan, Bermuda, South America and all parts of the world.

JNO. M. BORN, S. S. Agent
1106 Candler Bldg. Ivy 4884
ATLANTA.

A. B. & A. WAGE CUT DECISION FRIDAY

Verdict Will Determine Whether Road Can Put Reduction Into Effect Without Full Inquiry.

Chicago, January 26.—Decision on whether the Atlanta, Birmingham and Atlantic railroad must withdraw its notice of a wage reduction for its employees will be handed down Friday by the railroad labor board. It was learned today. Hearing on the case was held last night before the board, which now has the reduction in effect.

The board's decision merely will determine whether the road can put a wage reduction into effect without the consent of employees and without taking the case before the board.

"The matter for the board to decide is whether the wage reduction is to go into effect February 1," said G. W. W. Hanger, public representative on the board. "No agreement could be reached between the road and its employees in their recent conference. The employees contend that this constitutes a dispute and should, under the transportation act, come before the board.

"In any event the matter of wage reductions themselves will come up for hearing before the board at a later date."

FORD CONTINUING HIS GAIN IN VOTES

Washington, January 26.—The election plurality of about 7,500 of Senator Newberry, of Michigan, had been cut into by Henry Ford, his democratic opponent, to the extent of 5,444 votes, with 1,841 of the 2,322 state precincts recanvassed when the day's work of the senate primaries and elections committee was concluded yesterday.

The reason for this was that Wayne County, which Ford carried in which Detroit is situated, in that county Senator Newberry received 33,402 votes, and Mr. Ford 60,191. In the election two years ago, and it is expected that several days will be required for recounting these votes.

EVENING CLASSES

Accounting preparatory to the examination, taught by practical accountants. Tuition fee $25.00.

Bookkeeping for mature persons without previous knowledge of the subject. Tuition fee $12.50.

Credits conducted under the auspices of the Atlanta Credit Men's Association. Tuition fee $12.50.

Law Commercial law for business men; two courses; $12.50 per course.

Commercial Research designed to enable one to investigate the market and determine the sales possibility of his product. Tuition fee $12.50.

Income Tax course designed officially sanctioned fire and flood insurance to extend home keepers to protect the interests of their concerns. Tuition fee $12.50.

Register Tonight between 6:45 and 8:45 at 18 Auburn Ave.

Georgia School of Tech

J. M. Watters, Dean. Phone IVY 1887

The Oxford Eye Glass

FITTED WITH

Ballard's Kryptok Bifocal Glasses means our reputation stands back of them, and you are going to get the satisfaction you are entitled to. Today the Ballard service is a mark which tells of public favor honestly won, not smuggled in. We are not occultists nor doctors, but we do know when you need their service, and so advise.

Walter Ballard Optical Co.
105 PEACHTREE ST. ATLANTA

5c

BOY EXONERATED OF CONNECTION IN BRUTAL CRIME

Memphis, Tenn., January 26.—Defenders investigating the killing of 16-year-old Fred Dayley, whose mutilated body was found hanging near his father's house in a suburb of the city, announced late today their investigation discredited statement made against the boy by Matthew Houston, 16-year-old negro, who is said to have confessed to the crime, a white youth witness the killing and aided in disposing of the body.

The boy, also believed to have been taken to police headquarters when he was captured, was released. It was stated that it was proven he was at school at the time the murder is supposed to have been committed and had been taken to Nashville for safe-keeping.

The boy barely escaped being lynched by a mob last night, according to Deputy Sheriff Barbara Palmer, attorney who brought him to the city. From his cell at the state prison Houston talked freely of his crime.

More railroad cars and not legislation is needed to avert possible future shortages, Mr. Maurer told the committee, adding that the high coal prices last year were due to panic, fright of people who read about the railroad strike and the inter-state commerce commission priority orders on cars, and who remembered the shutdown in 1917 and the coal strike in 1919.

Data on increases in coal production was put before the committee by Charles O'Neill, secretary of the Central Pennsylvania Operators' association, who estimated 1916 costs in that territory at $1.14 a ton, against $1.17 for 1920. Labor charges, he said, account for most of the advance.

MORTUARY

Edna Ross.

Edna Ross, 7-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Ross, died Wednesday morning at the home, 11 Echo street.

Emmett Lee Campbell.

Emmett Lee Campbell, 8-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Campbell, died Tuesday morning at the residence, 111 Logan street.

Church Berryman.

Macon, Ga., January 26.—(Special) Church Berryman, aged 55, for years widely known as a popular commercial traveler, died at Milledgeville today after a long illness. His body was brought to Macon and the funeral services were held at the church where he resided.

The reason for his death was not known, but it was conjectured that he had suffered a heart attack.

He was buried in the cemetery of the church where he resided.

Frank McIntyre.

Atlanta, Ga., January 26.—(Special)—Frank McIntyre, for thirty-two years a prominent business man of Anniston, is dead at the age of 88. Mr. McIntyre, a native of Ireland, veteran, serving in Company C, Thirty-ninth Georgia regiment, during the four years of the civil war. He was born in Monroe before coming to Anniston to open what became one of this city's largest stores. A son, J. J. McIntyre, survives him.

IDLE FIREMEN WATCH FIFTEEN BUILDINGS BURN

Washington, January 26.—An officially sanctioned fire and flood insurance to extend home keepers to protect the interests of their concerns. Tuition fee $12.50.

Business English. There are many letter dictators, but few real correspondents. This course will teach you how to write business-getting letters. Tuition fee $12.50.

Commercial Research designed to enable one to investigate the market and determine the sales possibility of his product. Tuition fee $12.50.

Income Tax course designed officially sanctioned fire and flood insurance to extend home keepers to protect the interests of their concerns. Tuition fee $12.50.

Register Tonight between 6:45 and 8:45 at 18 Auburn Ave.

Georgia School of Tech

J. M. Watters, Dean. Phone IVY 1887

Nearly Half Billion in Back Taxes Paid

Commissioner Williams Announces Result of Federal Collections.

Washington, January 26.—More

$407,000,000 in back taxes in back times was collected by the government during 1920, Inter-State revenue commissioner, adding the official that an even larger sum would be collected during the present year.

Commissioner Williams said that back taxes were being collected at the rate of $35,000 a month as a result of file and offset audits of the 1917 and 1918 returns.

He said that the 1917 returns will probably be completed by March 1, the 1918 returns by April 1, and the 1919 returns by June 1.

Back taxes collected by the government officials explained, include penalties for delinquent and evasion, as well as assessments in taxes discovered to be due. What the 1918 and 1919 returns may reveal, officials were unable to estimate.

He said that the total figure for 1918 and 1919 would be exceeded this year.

Washington, January 26.—Bainbridge Colby, secretary of state, returned to Washington today from a week's vacation in San Fran- cisco, where he was engaged in a political campaign.

Colby attended the Democratic national convention in St. Louis, Mo., and made talks upon the experiences in administering the law.

Miss Edith Thompson, secretary of the Associated Charities bureau in Atlanta, spoke to the commissioners in social service; Mrs. J. E. Hayes, president of the State Federation of Women's clubs, took a prominent part in the proceedings.

Colby was preceded by Cator Woolford, chairman of the Social

SOCIAL AGENCIES DISCUSS SCHOOL ATTENDANCE LAWS

The Georgia Council of Social Agencies, composed of representatives of all statewide agencies engaged in social work, held a meeting at the Daffodil Tea Room, at 6:30 o'clock Wednesday evening.

A talk upon legislation affecting school attendance was made by M. Britain, state superintendent of schools.

Two school attendance officers,

Miss Harriet Robeson, of Fulton county, and J. R. Collins, superintendent of schools in Campbell county, and made talks upon their experiences in administering the law.

Miss Edith Thompson, secretary of the Associated Charities bureau in Atlanta, spoke to the commissioners in social service; Mrs. J. E. Hayes, president of the State Federation of Women's clubs, took a prominent part in the proceedings.

Colby was preceded by Cator Woolford, chairman of the Social

COAL

Lawrenceville, Ga.
Mr. Alz. Truitt, Atlanta, Ga.

We have just unloaded the car we had loaded at Chambersburg, Pa., and will be held in Atlanta, Georgia, and find it excellent quality. We have given you orders over wire for two more cars and trust you will come in.

Yours very truly,

WILLIAMS LUMBER CO.

Phone, wire or write,

TRUITT COAL AND IRON CO.

Long Distance Phone Ivy 753

Atlanta, Ga.

The regular communication of

Chambers Lodge, No. 444, F. & A. M., will be held in the temple of the Lodge, 3rd floor, on the corner of Peachtree and Andrew streets, this is to be done for advancement, refreshments will be served.

(Thursday) evening, January 27, 1921, at 8:30 o'clock. Work

Visiting brothers are cordially invited to attend.

By order of

SAM W. FLORENCE, K. of R. & S.

Attest:

FRANK E. GREENE, Grand Secretary.

Lodge Notices

The regular communication of

Chambers Lodge, No. 444, F. & A. M., will be held in the temple of the Lodge, 3rd floor, on the corner of Peachtree and Andrew streets, this is to be done for advancement, refreshments will be served.

(Thursday) evening, January 27, 1921, at 8:30 o'clock. Work

Visiting brothers are cordially invited to meet with us.

Attest:

JNO. S. MORRISON, W. M.

H. A. MORRISON, Secretary.

The regular communication of Chambers Lodge, No. 444, F. & A. M., will be held in the temple of the Lodge, 3rd floor, on the corner of Peachtree and Andrew streets, this